MARKETING INTERNSHIP

Do you enjoy working events and festivals? Are you looking for a job that allows you the opportunity to learn, practice, and enjoy the festival environment? Are you a self-motivated, hard-working individual?

Then the South Florida Fair, a 501(c) not-for-profit organization, is looking for you to be a part of our 2021 Fair team. Start date in mid-December with a TBD end date on February 5, 2021. Possibility of full-time future employment may exist to hired interns who demonstrate a superior ability at the position. Internship provides weekly stipend, as well as food when groups are present.

Qualifications:
• Enrolled in or a recent graduate of a degree program in marketing, advertising, digital arts, or a related field
• Must be proficient in the English language
• A high level of interest (experience preferred) in event production, festival management, and marketing of events
• Proficiency on social media apps with responsibility and integrity
• Excellent speaking skills for video interviews, and voice overs
• Must have reliable transportation
• An optimistic, “can-do” attitude
• Willingness to carry items, install signage, and walk long distances (within 2 miles)
• The ability to work independently and in a team setting while foreseeing and quickly correcting potential problems
• The ability to work well with others in a small organization.
• Experience with Microsoft Office, Dropbox and Google Drive preferred but not required.

During the Fair (January 15-31) days will be long (sometimes 9am-10pm) and include weekends. If you are interested, please email your resume (or a paragraph describing why you should be selected) to rita@southfloridafair.com. Make sure to include your full name and contact information, and the name of the school/college you currently attend.
