Artists, creatives, and artisans, get ready to show your stuff! The Fair exhibitor handbook is now available

SANTA MARIA – Everybody’s got a skill, what’s yours? Show it off and compete for the recognition of being the best in your category. It’s time to pull out the stops, grab whatever supplies you need, and pick up the Santa Barbara County Fair exhibitor handbook, which contains all of the exhibitor categories as well as the rules and regulations to participate.

Can you bake sumptuous sweets? Create amazing works of art? Create a setting that impresses the most discerning guest? Grow some impressive produce? Then there’s a category for you to exhibit your work and maybe win an award. All exhibitors must enter online at www.santamariafairpark.com.

The 2016 Santa Barbara County Fair Exhibitor handbook is now available! You can find it throughout the county. This year it’s full of new categories. Painted rocks, paper and recycled art are just a few of this year’s added exhibitor contest categories. There will be a first, second, and third place winner named in each category. Pick up a copy of the exhibitor handbook for an application and full list of categories.
