

YOUNG CATTLEMEN'S LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

CLASS VIII APPLICATION

This program is funded by the Alabama Beef Checkoff and serves to develop young leaders in the state cattle industry. There will be six (6) YCLP sessions for a select group of young cattlemen between the ages of 21 and 40 looking to take on more leadership and responsibility within the Alabama Cattlemen's Association and its county affiliates. Participants will network with other young cattlemen, tour different cattle operations, develop advocacy and leadership skills as it relates to beef cattle production all while learning more about the industry we represent. Young cattlemen who complete this program can expect to acquire and strengthen leadership skills, etwork with other cattle producers from across the state, develop advocacy skills, learn about key issues involved with the beef industry and get more involved with the Alabama Cattlemen's Association.
