

Remaining Dates On TobyMac Hits Deep 2020 Tour Postponed

"It is with a heavy heart but a responsible mind that I have to announce that the remaining 10 shows of the Hits Deep Tour are being postponed until August. We are at this very moment completely set up in Simmons Bank Arena in North Little Rock and regrettably, but responsibly won't be able to play tonight. We love you guys and are so thankful for you. We encourage you to be safe, pray, and care for your families. We have faced so much lately, but I am holding on (with everything in me) to the promise that He will never leave or forsake us. He is a Good, Good, Father and I will stand on that."

– TobyMac

We are working diligently to reschedule all the shows in August. Please retain your tickets as they will be valid on the rescheduled dates. If for any reason you cannot attend the rescheduled date, a full refund will be available through your original point of purchase.
