MARKET RABBIT SALE RULES

1. Entry in the Market Rabbit sale is limited to 4-H and FFA members in Benton and Franklin counties or the Burbank School District.
2. All Market Sale animals must be owned by the exhibitor 45 days before the sale.
3. Sale animals must be entered in the Market Rabbit section only.
4. Exhibitors are limited to enter only two rabbits. They can be sold together as one lot or as 2 individual lots. No white ribbon rabbits may be sold at the sale.
5. Each exhibitor of a sold animal is responsible for the animal until it leaves the grounds on Sun., 8/25.
6. To cover transaction cost, publicity, etc., a $3 fee per animal will be deducted from the proceeds of each animal sold.
7. No animal purchased at a previous market sale will be allowed to show or sell.
8. Exhibitors must show the rabbit at the time of the sale.
9. Market rabbits not making weight cannot be sold, but could be entered as pre-juniors in 4-H/FFA rabbit show, if allowed by breed standards, established by ARBA rules, or entered in the pet class.
