

TERMS OF SALE

Bidding: All animals sell to the highest bidder. Any disputes or questions regarding bids will be settled by the Auctioneer and his decision will be final. All animals will be sold by the head or pen.

Payment: The Buyer is requested to make payment in full at the time of sale unless approved arrangements have been made prior to the sale. If the buyer is billed for their purchases, payment is due upon receipt of the invoice. All payments should be made payable to BCFA. Yes, we accept all major credit cards as form of payment. The youth exhibitors will be paid by BCFA.

Junior Livestock Auction Purchase Information:

Invoices must be signed by the Buyer with the completed information regarding disposition of the animals, Buyer's name, billing address, contact phone number and purchase price.

Processing: For processing of steers, swine, lambs and goats, the Buyer is responsible for their choice of processor. Buyer should contact the processor for processing instructions, payment of processing charges and picking up their processed animal in the time allotted by the processor. Once the animal is delivered to the processor in the buyer's name, processing becomes the liability of the Buyer. The youth exhibitors are responsible for the processing of rabbits, broilers and turkeys and making arrangements for the delivery of these animals to the buyer or the donation location indicated by the buyer.

Donated Animals: As a buyer, you will have the option of keeping the animal you purchased for personal consumption or if you do not wish to keep the animal(s) you purchase, please consider donating them to a non-profit organization, such as the Brazoria County Fair Scholarship fund. Please indicate the name, address and phone number of the charity or group that is to receive the donated animal. The Buyer agrees to pay all processing charges for donated steers, swine, lambs and goats.
