SEPTEMBER WILL BE TIME TO “GET YOUR FAIR ON!”

Come late September as the anticipation builds for the biggest community celebration of the year, Central Washington State Fair officials are going to be asking everyone to Get Your Fair On!

“Get Your Fair On” is the theme for this year’s Fair and officials are wanting it to be more than just a theme, but an invitation for everyone to come out and join the fun.

“Get Your Fair On is a state of mind,” said Fair president and general manager Greg Stewart. “It’s an attitude. Every year the anticipation grows right up to Fair time and we want people to be ready to have fun and get your Fair on!”

“The Fair is different things to different people, but in essence it is one huge community get-together and we want everyone to feel they’re invited and part of it. Come late summer everyone is going to be invited to ‘Get Your Fair On’.”

Stewart said that this year fair patrons will find some new foods, attractions and exhibits along with many Fair favorites including special high-quality entertainment during the daytime hours of the Fair.

He said the Fair board and staff are currently finalizing the line-up of big name entertainers for the U.S. Cellular Concert Series during the Fair and will be announcing that information in the next couple months.

This year’s Central Washington State Fair is scheduled for September 23-October 2 in Yakima.
