LUPILLO RIVERA AND LOS HOROSCOPOS de DURANGO ADDED TO FAIR ENTERTAINMENT LINE-UP

Well-known banda singer Lupillo Rivera and duranguense style musical group Los Horoscopos de Durango will be performing at the Central Washington State Fair in September.

Rivera is a three-time Grammy nominated singer who won a Grammy for the Best Banda Album in 2010 for his album Tu Esclavo y Amo. He will be performing on the Corona Stage on Sunday, September 23 at 4 p.m.

Los Horoscopos de Durango, starring sisters Vicky and Marisol Terrazas, have had numerous hits on the Latin charts over the years. They will be playing at the Corona Stage on Sunday, September 30 at 4 p.m.

Bleacher seating to all concerts are free with admission to the fair, however Gold Circle general admission seating closer to the stage can be purchased for each of the Sunday shows beginning Friday, June 15, at 10 a.m. through the State Fair Park Box Office, all TicketsWest outlets, www.ticketwest.com and charge-by-phone at 800.325.7328 (SEAT). Paid concert tickets do not include fair admission. For more information, visit the fair's website: www.fairfun.com.

The Central Washington State Fair runs September 21-30 in Yakima.
