MORE COUNTRY ACTS ADDED TO C.W. STATE FAIR LINE-UP

Two more nights of country music have been added to the Central Washington State Fair entertainment line-up, including one big night with three incredible country music artists in one amazing show.

On Tuesday, September 25, country singer John Michael Montgomery returns to the Fair. With 15 number 1 hits to his name including “I Swear”, “I Love the Way You Love Me”, and “I Can Love You Like That”. Montgomery performs at 7 p.m. His first appearance at the Fair was in 2007.

On the following night, Wednesday, September 26 at 7 p.m., the Fair presents the Roots and Boots Tour featuring country singers Sammy Kershaw, Colin Raye and Aaron Tippin. All three of these gentlemen of country music have numerous hits to their names.

Kershaw’s hits include “She Don’t Know She’s Beautiful”, “Cadillac Style”, and many others. Raye’s hits include “Love Me”, “In This Life”, and others. Tippin’s number 1 hits include “Ain’t Nothing Wrong with the Radio”, “Kiss This”, and “That’s as Close as I’ll Get to Loving You”.

Earlier, fair officials announced Dan + Shay, High Valley, Survivor, Theory of a Deadman, and Air Supply will also be appearing as part of the US Cellular Concert Series at this year’s fair.

Bleacher seating to all the shows are free with admission to the fair, however some reserved seating is available for purchase for all performances. Reserve tickets for John Michael Montgomery and the Roots and Boots Tour show are $24 & $18. Tickets can be purchased beginning Friday morning, April 27, at 10 a.m. through the State Fair Park Box Office, all TicketsWest outlets, www.ticketwest.com, and charge-by-phone at 800.325.7328 (SEAT). Reserved seat tickets do not include fair admission. For more information, visit the fair’s website, www.fairfun.com.

The Central Washington State Fair runs September 21-30 in Yakima.
