

30th ANNIVERSARY TOUR

13 #1 Records | 3 Gold Albums | Grammy, CMA & ACM Award Winners

INTRODUCTION

When country music lovers talk about the greatest groups in the genre, Shenandoah is always at the forefront of any discussion. Fueled by Marty Raybon's distinctive vocals and the band's skilled musicianship, Shenandoah became well known for delivering such hits as "Two Dozen Roses", "Church on Cumberland Road" and "Next to You, Next to Me" as well as such achingly beautiful classics as "I Want to be Loved Like That" and the Grammy winning "Somewhere in the Vicinity of the Heart" duet with Alison Krauss. Shenandoah has recorded nine studio albums (3 certified gold) and placed 26 singles on Billboard's Hot Country Songs chart. The boys from Muscle Shoals have left a potent legacy at country radio with over a dozen hit records.

30TH ANNIVERSARY TOUR

Shenandoah made their first public appearance in 1987, 30 years ago. They will celebrate this milestone with the nationwide "Shenandoah 30th Anniversary Tour," which will run through the end of 2017. Dates to be announced soon.

WHAT THE COUNTRY MUSIC INDUSTRY IS SAYING

"Producing Shenandoah's new album has been the thrill of a lifetime. As someone who grew up in Ohio, it would be like tossing a football with Ken Anderson or Boomer Esiason. You never dream of it coming true. I was definitely a kid in a candy store."

- Jay DeMarcus (Rascal Flatts)

"It was such an honor to meet Mike & Marty from Shenandoah and have them attend the CMT Awards this year"

- Leslie Fram (CMT - Senior Vice President)

"The guys were incredible and one of the top performances at the ACM All Star Jam this year." - Fran Romeo (Romeo Ent)
