GENERAL LIVESTOCK RULES & REGULATIONS
NO DOGS & NO SMOKING IN LIVESTOCK BARN

1. Registration papers must be available for inspection. Breeding animals must be registered and entered in the name of the owner. Owners need not be the actual handlers. Exception: Paper pending will be accepted for animals under one year old, or to conform to species standards as long as proof of eligibility for registration is available. Exceptions: Rabbits and Poultry.
2. Breeding animals dually shown in Open Class and 4-H or FFA must be entered under the same exhibitor. The breeding animal must be registered in the exhibitor's name or their family farm name. All animals exhibited in 4-H or FFA, must be housed, groomed, and fitted in the 4-H or FFA livestock area even when preparing for the open class shows by the member only. 4-H or FFA exhibitors wishing to enter in Open Class must enter their registered animal(s) by the open class deadline and pay the entry fee. If there is a conflict with the show times, class schedules will not be changed to accommodate exhibitors.
3. All sheep and goat exhibitors will be required to show proof of participation in the Scrapie Program. All animals must have appropriate required Scrapie ID and/or paperwork that supports compliance.
4. Exhibitors are limited to two entries per class.
5. Individual animals shown in all group, pair, herd or flock classes must have been entered and shown in one of the classes for single animals. Exception: Cow/calf pairs.
6. Late entries and substitutions will be accepted at the discretion of Fair Management.
7. DUE TO LIMITED SPACE FOR LIVESTOCK, ENTRIES WITH APPROPRIATE FEES WILL BE ACCEPTED IN ORDER RECEIVED.
8. All animals shall be tied or penned at all times unless being fitted, washed or shown. All animals must be kept and fitted in the barn area. Unauthorized livestock on the grass or in the exhibit building area will be immediately disqualified from further competition and any premiums won will be forfeited. Safety ropes or neckties plus halters are required on all cattle.
9. Nurse cows will be stalled away from exhibit livestock. Check with Fair Management for space.
10. Exhibitors must furnish feed and bedding and care for their own livestock.
11. Exhibitors are required to take all refuse to the designated dump site. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of premiums.
12. All livestock, including horses which are not entered as an exhibit, must be stalled and a stall fee paid. Check with Fair Management for stall space.
13. Fair Management reserves the right to reject any animal that appears to be unhealthy.
14. Fair Management reserves the right to call a veterinarian for a sick animal in cases where the owner is not available. Expenses to be the responsibility of the owner.
15. Fair Management reserves the right to remove ANY animals from the fair under a veterinarian's recommendation.
16. No exhibitor will be allowed to administer medication to another exhibitor's entry. If you feel an entry needs medication, please contact the superintendent.
17. No animal shall be drugged, tranquilized, or unethically fitted as determined by Fair Management.
18. Signs offering an animal for sale are not to be displayed on stalls.

19. It shall be the responsibility of each owner or handler to have his/her animals ready to show at the scheduled time.
20. Exhibits may not be removed until close of Fair, without written permission of the management.
21. Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Champion, Reserve Champion and Best of Show will receive ribbons only. No Champion ribbons will be given unless more than one class is exhibited in each breed--male and female.
22. Division and/or classes may be split or combined as numbers warrant.
23. Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Champion, Reserve Champion and Best of Show Ribbons will be awarded during the Shows. First, Second and Third cloth Ribbons will be given on request by exhibitor.
24. No buck goats born before July 1st of the current year.

ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All animals and health documents are subject to inspection while on the fairgrounds. No animal shall be admitted, or allowed to remain on the grounds that show evidence of infectious or contagious conditions.

No animals from a herd or flock under federal or state surveillance program may be exhibited without prior permission from Oregon State Veterinarian's office.

OREGON ORIGIN: No permits, health certificates or test required for cattle, sheep, goats and swine. All poultry including exhibition, exotic and game birds (except waterfowl, pigeons and doves) must be from a US Pullorum--Typhoid clean flock, or have negative test within 90 days prior to exhibition. A veterinarian or technician may be on hand to test all birds that have not been tested. There will not be a charge to the exhibitor.

OUT OF STATE ORIGIN: Health Certificate from veterinarian in state of origin and an entry permit from Animal Health Division, Oregon Department of Agriculture (503) 986-4689 for all livestock entering Oregon. Your veterinarian must call for permit number and specific requirement. Cattle and horses must have current brand inspection from state of origin.

ANIMAL WELFARE POLICY

Considering the importance of animals to Oregon fairs, it will be the policy of members of the Oregon Fair Association to treat all animals at the fair in a humane manner. Animals shall be provided clean bedding, adequate feed and water, shelter, and fair exhibitors shall keep their animals from harm.

It shall further be the policy of OFA members to protect animals from mistreatment by the general public and to assure the safety of fair patrons.

All persons in charge of fair activities involving animals shall be made aware of this policy.

Adopted by the Oregon Fairs Association on October 21, 1988.

The exhibit may be a poster or a three-dimensional display.

1. You cannot bring the materials of your experiment for the display or perform the experiment live. You will only be judged on your board/project. You can however, mount things on your board in a type of 3D display, but your board has to be able to stand by itself.
2. If you do mount things on the board, try not to mount something expensive that you bought and make sure you have things mounted securely so they don't fall off. Loose materials like soil, bark, or sand must be displayed in closed containers.
3. YOU MAY NOT MOUNT ANY FOOD OR ORGANIC MATERIALS!
4. Your display must fit within the allocated space of 36 inches wide and 15 inches deep. The display must be self-supporting.
5. In addition to the display board, other materials such as papers and dioramas may be included.
6. No electric power, tape, thumbtacks, or other supplies will be available at the fair.
7. Animals, cultures, electrical equipment, hazardous chemicals, or heat sources may not be brought to the fair.
8. Mechanical equipment, glass items, or any item with sharp edges may not be brought to the fair.
9. Respect all adults involved in the fair... especially the judges!
10. All decisions of the judges are final.
