

The Western Edge of North Dakota is next to over 1.5 million acres of public land, prairies, rugged buttes, rivers and plains wildlife.

The Theodore Roosevelt National Park was once home to our 26th President who ranched in the Badlands during the 1880's.

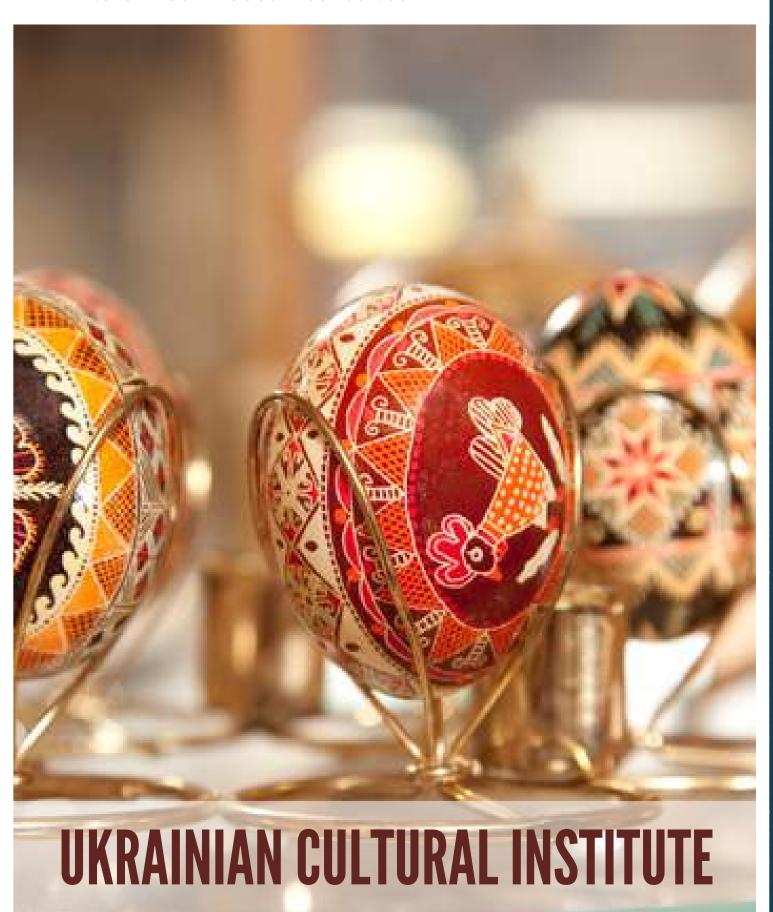

Today the recreational opportunities and adventures are still available, but the lodging and dining comforts are definitely upgraded.

Big Bones. Featuring an evolving exhibit of fossils and minerals, a public preparation lab, and a vibrant research and fieldwork program, the museum also houses a spectacular rock and mineral collection.

Ukrainian art, displays, festivals, and a research library bring descendants, ethnic heritage interest, and cultural themes to the center. Beautiful hand crafted "pysanky" Easter eggs are showcased with individual themes and stories.

1221 W. Villard St. 701-483-1486

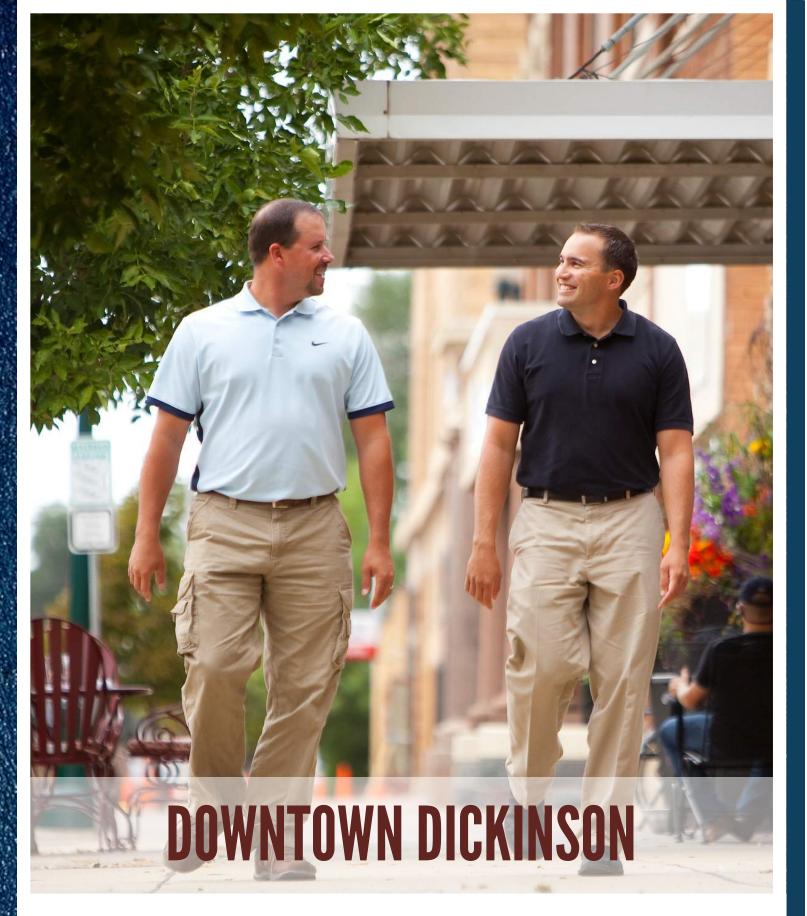

Local Stories. History takes the visitor through the eras of the resettlement of immigrants. Summer tours of historic area buildings tell of the early settlers and how they began a life on the plains.

188 E. Museum Dr. 701-456-6225 www.dickinsonmuseumcenter.com

Preserving Roosevelt's legacy is the work of the TR Center by digitizing and organizing the documents, photographs, and artifacts in the collections. Roosevelt's time in the Dakota badlands shaped the man he became.
