MARKET SWINE RULES

- All swine health records must accompany animals to the Fair.
- Swine must possess an official USDA ear tag.
- Boars may not be shown in the Market Show. In those cases where the pig is discovered to be a boar after it has been sold and slaughtered, the participant will forfeit the sale price of the swine by returning the purchase price in full to the buyer of said swine.
- If at any time an entered swine is found to be a boar before the sale, the entered swine MUST be removed from the fairgrounds immediately.
- Only one market hog may be exhibited by each exhibitor.
- Exhibitors must show in FFA official dress.
- Market Swine classes will be grouped into Light Weight, Medium Weight and Heavy Weight divisions with breaks being determined after official weigh in. The Champion drive will consist of the Champion and Reserve Champion Hog from the Light, Medium and Heavy weight divisions and the judge will have the discretion to request a 3rd or 4th place hog from a division to enter the ring in the final drive.

NON-SALE MARKET SWINE RULES:

*There is no class number for this section, all hogs will be signed up through class #5: Project Market Swine
