2019 Fall and Winter Art Walk

At a staggering 150 pieces, Fountain Hills is home to one of the largest public art collections in the state of Arizona! Register for any of our Public Art Walks and discover the power of art among Arizona's natural desert beauty.

Our public Art Walk invites you to gaze upon striking statues set against Fountain Hills' mountain ranges, scenic skies, and of course, our World Famous Fountain. Our tours highlight production techniques and the stories behind the unique sculpture art in our Town.

This year features a new extended tour in partnership with the River of Time Museum! For our Centennial Circle tours only, all registered guests will be guided through our Centennial Circle Art Walk tour, after which patrons will join docents for a tour of the L. Alan Cruikshank River of Time Museum.

The River of Time Museum creatively exhibits the stories of the people who followed the rivers to settle the Lower Verde River Valley. Discover the history, anthropology, natural history and sociology of this unique desert location. If you don't have time following your art walk, your docent will provide a complimentary admission coupon to come back and visit the River of Time.

Fountain Hills, Arizona, is the place to see art in all its glory with a majestic backdrop of the McDowell and Four Peaks mountains and the Town's signature 560-foot tall Fountain, located in the center of its 64-acre park.

Fountain Hills Art Walk

Still as a statue with no expression or emotion? Try telling that to the musicians that make up sculptor George Lundeen's bronze, Joy of Music. Walk on the wild side with big-eared Chauncey the Rabbit or sit astride old George the Tortoise, and feel the art come to life. Want to look into the face of a caveman or marvel at the Power of Thought? Serious, whimsical, thought-provoking and just downright beautiful, this incredible collection by internationally recognized artists will awe and inspire you. Follow the journey through the Civic Center sculpture garden, then view the many pieces of varied art such as bronzes, murals, paintings, photography, and three-dimensional art inside the River of Time Museum, the Community Center, the Library, and Town Hall.

But your adventure doesn't stop there! Follow the map down Avenue of the Fountains and view the magnificent eagle in the piece, Freedom, located on the median. Then continue to Fountain Park where you will meet Teddy Roosevelt and Bob the Frog. But the uniqueness doesn't stop there! Don't miss the magnificent African pieces that surround the park and The Veterans Memorial that will take your breath away and your heart.

Fountain Hills, Arizona, is the place to see art in all its glory with a majestic backdrop of the McDowell and Four Peaks mountains and the Town's signature 560-foot tall Fountain, located in the center of its 64-acre park.
