NM State Fair Jr. Livestock Auction Association to Donate Lunch to ABQ Rescue Mission Clients

Albuquerque Rescue Mission expects to be able to feed 450 people on Thursday, December 20

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – The New Mexico State Fair Junior Livestock Auction Foundation, which sponsored the 2012 State Fair Junior Livestock Sale, will sponsor lunch for Albuquerque Rescue Mission clients on Thursday, December 20 from 5 to 6 p.m.

“This year’s Junior Livestock sale was one of the most successful in recent State Fair history,” said Dan Mourning, State Fair General Manager. “Our generous sponsors and supporters helped raise more than $300,000 toward agriculture studies and scholarships for 4-H and FFA kids across the state. In the spirit of giving this holiday season, the foundation and its supporters are proud to provide food for clients of the Albuquerque Rescue Mission.” Mourning said.

, Albuquerque Mayor Richard Berry, along with Mourning and other officials, will be on-hand beginning at 4:30 p.m. for interviews and video ops prior to foodservice at 5 p.m.

The Albuquerque Rescue Mission is located at 525 2nd Street SW. Lunch will be served Friday, December 20 from 5-6 p.m.
