

CRACKER COUNTRY LIVING HISTORY MUSEUM HOSTS SPOOKY TALL TALES OF OLD FLORIDA

- WHAT: Explore Cracker Country, the 19th century living history museum at the Florida State Fairgrounds, by lantern light this Fall season. During Tall Tales of Old Florida, tour guides will lead guests by lantern light through the grounds to meet six “tellers” who will share uniquely Florida stories about skunk apes, misbehaving trains, cow hunting giants and other legendary creatures. The stories are a little scary, a little funny but all family-friendly. Guests will also enjoy a magic lantern show, a turn-of-the-20th-century projection technology that led to the birth of the film industry to hear and see a tale of pirates and ghosts on the silver screen. Guests are invited to come early to enjoy harvest games and decor.
- WHEN: Saturday, October 20, 2018
6:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.
Tour times start every ten minutes and each tour lasts 60 minutes.
- TICKETS/PARKING: Tickets can be purchased online at www.crackercountry.org. Tickets are $10 per person. Not recommended for children under 6 years old.
- Enter the Florida State Fairgrounds via Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd entrance. Parking is $8 per car. Buses and RVs are $15. Cash only.
- PR CONTACT: Please contact Krystin Olinski at 813-205-5572 or krystin@thisispress.com for additional details, media credentials and/or hi-res photos.
