

First Amendment Policy

It is the policy of the Florida State Fair Authority to allow free speech activity whenever said activity is not inconsistent with the normal operations or activities of the Florida State Fairgrounds. However, due to the unique nature of the activities at the Florida State Fair, there is limited access necessitating creation of First Amendment Activity Zones. The Florida State Fair Authority specifically finds that the building and grounds comprising the Florida State Fairgrounds are generally surrounded by parking areas under the control of the Florida State Fair Authority, which areas become congested with numerous vehicles during the annual State Fair and other events. The Florida State Fair Authority further finds that pedestrian traffic is generally confined to narrow walkways to and from these parking areas to the various gates at Florida State Fairgrounds and the First Amendment Activity Zones are designed to balance the interests by those engaged in First Amendment Activity with the Florida State Fair Authority's interest in providing reasonable and safe access to the patrons

The implementation of this policy is not meant to concede that the parking lots, walkways, and grounds of the Florida State Fair are public fora. This policy seeks to apply reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions to petitioning, free speech, and other forms of expression under the First Amendment. All persons engaged in First Amendment activities on the Florida State Fairgrounds are expected to comply with this policy.
