

Four States Fair Ag Learning Center seeks applicants for Ag Learning Center Director

Texarkana, AR– Four States Fair Ag Learning Center is accepting applications for the open Ag Learning Center Director position. The Ag Learning Center was established in 2006 on the Four States Fairgrounds in Texarkana, Arkansas as a regional agriculture educational facility that reaches over 10,000 kids annually through a variety of agriculture education programs at the facility. This granted funded position, manages and teaches a variety of agriculture programs throughout the year.

AG LEARNING CENTER DIRECTOR

Basic responsibilities:

Responsible for the promotion and education of beef, dairy, nutrition, and other agriculture products mainly focusing on the commodities from the four states area.

Responsibilities:

Development of beef, dairy, nutrition, and agriculture related programs and presenting those programs to groups and classes in the ALC Field Trips throughout the year, as well as presentations to educational organizations or local events.

Coordinating and scheduling programs including event times and dates for field trips

Promoting the ALC programs to schools, educational groups, and the general public.

Developing, facilitating, and organizing Kids Days at the Fair, which includes but not limited to, recruiting and organizing volunteers, working with the various groups to set up the events for Kids Day.

Is responsible for providing handouts, brochures, coloring books, and pamphlets with information on the ALC. Designing and development of new games, hands-on educational activities, and exhibits built for the Ag Learning Center related to the agriculture industry

Maintaining records about the field trips and visits to the ALC so you can compile and present informative presentations for funding sponsors and potential sponsors as well as the promotion of agriculture through the ALC.

To apply submit a cover letter and resume to Brent@fourstatesfair.com and Lisab@fourstatesfair.com.