JUDGES AND JUDGING PROCEDURE

29. Every effort will be made to obtain qualified, impartial judges in every area.

31. Judging will not be delayed for late entries. Any exhibit not presented promptly at the scheduled time is barred from competition in the class. Protests that the judges overlooked exhibits will not be considered.

32. Should any article be entered in the wrong class and the error discovered before the judging, the superintendent may make proper correction in the entry.

33. Where there is competition, all prizes may be awarded as long as there are worthy entries. Where articles are not worthy of first prize, judges may, at their discretion, award a prize or prizes of such a grade as the article deserves. Any article not up to standard in the class in which it is entered may be ruled out by the judge(s).

34. Articles without competition will be judged on their own merit and will be placed first, second, third, etc., or no award, as the judges see fit.

36. The decisions of the judges shall be final in all classes and no appeal will be considered except in cases of written protest.

the Georgia National Fair management or such referee as may be appointed (the Advisory Committee), may make a decision regarding final placement.

41. The Superintendent shall notify the exhibitor of the protested article in question, and both parties shall then have 10 days in which to bring testimony in the case to be submitted to the Advisory Committee. The protested award will be held in abeyance until the final action of the Advisory Committee from whose decision there will be no appeal.

42. In case the protest shall not be sustained, the deposit shall be forfeited to the Georgia National Fair.

43. No other protest will be considered
