

CULINARY

ALL DIVISIONS OF THE CULINARY DEPARTMENT WILL BE IN THE MILLER-MURPHY-HOWARD BUILDING.

Mail entry forms to arrive by September 23 for early registration for baking.

ALL baked goods will be received Thursday, October 8, between 3:00 PM and 8:00 PM at the Miller-Murphy-Howard Building. Bakers who pre-register more than two entries by September 23 will be mailed a temporary unloading pass. A copy of your entry form (or online confirmation if pre-registered) along with your baked goods or contest dish will serve as your ticket into any gate. Any family member over age 10 not participating in competition must purchase an entrance ticket.

ELIGIBILITY

1. All exhibitors are required to read and abide by the Georgia National Fair General Rules And Regulations found at <https://www.georgianationalfair.com/p/georgialiving/finarts>. Culinary Rules also govern these competitions. PLEASE NOTE: IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO READ AND UNDERSTAND THE RULES.

If you have questions, you may certainly e-mail us at contests@gnfa.com. Please help us prevent entry disqualifications.

2. The basic rules of food safety must be followed. All meat, fish, poultry, milk, egg, and vegetable dishes must be kept cold (below 40 degrees F) or hot (above 140 degrees F). This means that ice chests or other insulated containers must be used when transporting or holding food. There will be no access to electricity available at the Fairgrounds. For information on food safety, contact your County Extension Agent.

3. Cooking contests are open to amateurs and to professionals unless stated otherwise in a contest. Exhibitors must decide under which category they will enter. Professionals, along with amateurs who have reached the highest level of cooking arts, should enter the "OPEN" Division; i.e., past sweepstakes winners or winners of multiple first place ribbons. Contestants who accumulate 15 blue ribbons over a 5 year period will be automatically moved up to the Open Division. Officials reserve the right to move entries up if warranted.

4. For live contests, unless there is a Youth Division listed, contestants must have reached their 16th birthday by October 1, 2020.

5. Exhibitors ages 12-18 enter in the Youth Baking Divisions. Young cooks must have reached their twelfth birthday before October 1, 2020, to compete, unless stated otherwise in a contest.

6. Please be aware - to keep traffic moving, the Georgia State Patrol may direct you to an area other than the West parking lot to park. You may have to transport your entry across the fair grounds. Please plan accordingly and allow yourself plenty of time to park and transport your items.

7. Online registration will end at 11:59 PM 3 days before the receiving date, or 2 days before the contest date for live contests.

8. Pre-registration is strongly recommended.

9. For live contests, entries arriving after the stated end of receiving time will have an automatic 10 point deduction and still must be in place before judges enter the judging area. For contests with presentation, entry must be placed by the time stated for placing. All contestants must be out of the judging area before stated start of judging time. Dishes not registered and in place before judging begins will not be judged.

10. For all on-site contests, contestants must be present to win, unless they are on the fairgrounds participating in another live Fair contest at award presentation time. Contestant must notify Culinary staff at check-in.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

11. Contestants may enter as many Classes as they wish, but only one entry per Class.

12. All entries must be submitted on the official entry form of the Georgia National Fair or through the online entry process. Entry must include title of recipe; e.g., "Grandma's Chocolate Pecan Pie", not "Pecan Contest".

13. A recipe may not be submitted more than once from the same kitchen i.e., the same recipe may not be submitted by more than one member of the same family, or from more than one student from a school class, or by the same exhibitor at more than one Fair.

14. A recipe may not be used in more than one contest; i.e., a pecan pie cannot be entered on pie day and the same recipe entered again in the “Pearson Farm Pecan Recipe” contest.

15. For all Culinary entries, baking and on-site contests, TWO TYPED COPIES OF THE RECIPE ON 8 1/2X11 SHEETS OF PAPER MUST ACCOMPANY EACH ENTRY. ALL RECIPES BECOME THE PROPERTY OF THE GEORGIA NATIONAL FAIR AND CANNOT BE RETURNED. Winning recipes may be included in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.

16. The contestant's name, address, telephone number, and the name of the contest must be printed clearly on the back of each recipe. Division and Class numbers must be included for baking contests.

17. Present a copy of your entry form (or online confirmation if pre-registered) along with your baked goods or contest dish to the personnel at any TICKET GATE and you will be permitted to enter. Anyone not participating in competition must purchase an entrance ticket.

18. All Culinary entries, Baking Entries and on-site contest dishes, must be delivered to the Miller-Murphy-Howard Building.

19. Baked entries must be on thin board or paper plates with the exception of pies, which must be in disposable pie tins; no responsibility will be taken for contestants' plates. Entries must be covered.

20. For on-site contests, dishes must be picked up immediately after winners' announcements.

21. Except for the Mix Tricks category in Cakes, no mixes or pre-made doughs are allowed in the baking categories.

22. All culinary entries become property of the Fair and will not be returned.

23. Baking entries not designated for the charity bake sale will be disposed of.

24. Unless stated otherwise, all dishes must be prepared prior to arrival at the Fair.

25. Except for the contests judged on presentation, contestants will not be allowed to “place” their entry. No presentation elements will be allowed beyond the serving dish. Any sauces or condiments must be applied to the dish before turning in for judging. All components of the dish must fit on the serving plate or bowl.

JUDGING

26. Every effort is made to obtain qualified and impartial judges. In Culinary, that means people who know how to judge food items based on what the scorecard calls for. Scorecards demand that judges be as objective as possible when testing food. The decision of the judges will be final.

PREMIUMS

27. All premium money will be paid from the judges' record sheets and not from ribbons that may be attached to exhibits. NOTE: For premiums less than $10, please refer to the premium section of the General Rules.

28. Award of Excellence Rosette and $25 may be awarded in each Division in Culinary Baking.

29. Sweepstakes Plaque and $25 may be presented to the Georgia Champion Junior Cook - winner of the most blue ribbons in the Youth Culinary Divisions. The Cindy Noble Memorial Award will be presented to the Adult Culinary Sweepstakes winner.

30. Winners' ribbons will be available during regular exhibit release Tues. &

Wed., Oct. 20 & 21. Ribbons not picked up at the close of the Fair will be mailed to the exhibitor.

31. Premium checks will be mailed within six weeks after the Fair is over.

A word about appearance vs. presentation: Judging on appearance means the judges will be looking at the food only; whether the food item exhibits "normal" properties, how it looks in the container and whether the individual portion looks appetizing on the plate. If the rules state an entry will be judged on presentation, this means the judges will also be looking at the serving dish and any other decorative item the contestant may choose to stimulate the appetite or express the theme of the dish.

Examples of standard abbreviations:

Recipe Format Tips

- Type or print legibly. Winning recipes may be used in a future edition of the Georgia National Fair Blue Ribbon Cookbook.
- List all ingredients in order of use in ingredients list.
- Include container sizes, for example, 16 oz. pkg. or 20 oz. can.
- Use standard abbreviations for measurements.
- Keep directions in paragraph form - not in numbered steps.
- Use names of ingredients in the directions, for example, "Combine flour and sugar." DO NOT use statements like "Combine first three ingredients."
- Include temperatures and cooking, chilling, baking, and/or freezing times.
- Be consistent in the spelling of your name for each recipe you enter (Do not enter some as Joyce B. Jones and some as Joyce Jones or Joy Jones).
- Remember to bring two typed copies of your recipe on 8 1/2 x 11 paper.
- Make sure your name, address, telephone number, and the name of the contest are printed clearly on the back of each recipe. Division and Class numbers should be included for baking contests.

COOKS WHO CARE CHARITY BAKE SALE

Friday, October 9, 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM
Saturday, October 10, 9:00 AM - 8:00 PM

Georgia Cooks for charity will again take place as a part of the 2020 Georgia Living Program. Almost $600 was raised for charity last year as a result of exhibitors' generosity. On Friday, October 9, and continuing Saturday, October 10, a bake sale of items entered in competition will be held in the Culinary Department.
