In keeping with the Georgia National Fair theme of “Family · Traditions · Memories”, contestants are asked to re-create the traditional holiday dinner. Contestants may choose to represent any holiday. This contest is open to individuals or teams of two (2).

1. Along with their meal, contestants will bring all supplies to create a holiday dinner table. This includes centerpiece, tablecloth, and place setting for 4 (plates, knives, forks, spoons, glassware, napkins, etc.). Contestants will supply all serving utensils.

2. Contestants will each be assigned a 60” round table for this contest. A 6’ x 18” table will be provided as a prep area.

3. Meal will consist of a main dish, 2 side dishes, a beverage and a dessert. Entry cannot be a repeat of a previous entry.

4. Contestants will plate one serving at the table. Judges will sample from the serving dishes without disturbing the plate.

5. Contestants will include a typed description of their family’s holiday dinner traditions, along with the required copies of their recipes.

6. Starting at 1:15, contestants will have 1 hour to set their dinner table and leave the judging area. Judging will not be delayed for incomplete presentations.
