Fairest of the Fair

Coronation Ceremony

2018 Fairest of the Fair

Kiley Eck

Kylie is the daughter of Carol and Lewis Eck. She grew up on her family's farm between Lake Mills and Cambridge where they raise beef cattle and grow cash crops. Kylie has been involved with the Jefferson County Fair for many years exhibiting swine, photography, and many other projects. She is currently a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin Madison studying Communication Arts and Political Science. Kylie has had an exciting year inviting people to the Fair, participating in community events, learning about the Wisconsin Fair industry, and being the official hostess of the 2018 Jefferson County Fair. Kylie will compete in the 2019 Wisconsin Fairest of the Fairs competition in January.

2019 Fairest of the Fair Contestants

Natalie Ciciva—Waterloo, WI

Natalie is the oldest daughter of John and Donna. She attends William Woods University in Fulton, MO where she is studying a double major in Equestrian Science and Equestrian Administration with a minor in Business Communications. Natalie was the 2014-15 Jefferson County Horse and Pony Equine Ambassador. She has been very involved in 4-H in Jefferson County both as an exhibitor and now as an adult leader.

Libby Knoebel—Helenville, WI

Libby is the third daughter of Steve and Jody. She grew up on a farm where they grow many different types of produce. She is currently attending UW-River Falls where she is double majoring in Dairy Science and Animal Science, with a meat emphasis. Libby has shown many different projects at the Jefferson County Fair since she was little, and has been heavily involved in the 4-H program.
