

Guidelines To Apply For A Director On The Kendall County Fair Association, Inc. Board Of Directors

Applications for director are accepted throughout the fiscal calendar year. Applications will not be held over. A new application for director must be submitted for each fiscal calendar year. Consideration will be given to all director candidate's who show a sincere desire to promote and improve the Kendall County Fair Association, Inc. and the Kendall County Fair.

A director (he or she) shall be elected by the current board at any regular scheduled monthly meeting during the year by a two-thirds majority vote of the current directors if any vacancy exist or occurs. The appointee (he or she) will serve the unexpired term of the vacancy. Seven Directors (he and she) are elected in October by the members during the Annual General Membership Meeting. Current directors (he or she) serving their expired term are asked by the Nominating Committee if they want to seek directorship for another three year term and if so their name is added to the voting ballot along with any other director candidate the nominating committee has recruited.

ARTICLE IV-DIRECTORS AND MEETINGS

Section I
