2019 WELDING COMPETITION

The Kootenai County Fairgrounds is pleased to offer young artists and industrial enthusiasts from the Northwest an opportunity to showcase their best work at the Youth W.A.R.S.'s Welding Competition. Students, grades 9-12, are invited to participate in this new, unique opportunity. This competition will help educate about agriculture and the industry, as well as provide growth, experience, and further opportunities for the participants.

SEE CALENDAR FOR ENTRY TIMES

COMPETITION GUIDELINES

- Entrants must be currently enrolled in grade 9-12, or homeschool equivalent.
- Still exhibit entries should have been completed only by the entrant, and no earlier than June 1, 2018.
- Please include an index card with the following information for still exhibits:

Division and Class Number

Design Idea (drawing or description)

Techniques Used

On back:

Exhibitor Name and Contact (phone/email)

- Judging Criteria
  - Live welds: Individuals will be judged on creativity, overall quality of work, and use of materials. Groups will be judged by the same criteria as well as implementation of different techniques.
  - Still exhibits: Individuals will be judged on creativity, originality, technique and quality of work.
- Entries will not be accepted or returned by mail.
- All entries must stay on display the full run of the event.
- Show directors reserve the right to reject any work found objectionable.
- Although every precaution will be made to protect exhibits, the Kootenai County Fairgrounds will not be responsible for theft, loss, or damage to entries.
