Member Checklist:

The following checklist has been developed to assist you in managing your animal to ensure a wholesome product. While this checklist can't cover every situation, it highlights some of the more common mistakes young producers might make. You are responsible to ensure that:

PLEASE INITIAL

- ____ All medicated feeds or feed additives were discontinued the required number of days prior to slaughter, as stated on the label.
- ____ No feed containing mammalian meat and/or bone was fed at any time.
- ____ Withdrawal times for any medications, wormers, etc. were followed.
- ____ No product was utilized in raising or exhibiting this animal that was not specifically labeled for use with this species; approved products were only used according to the manufacturer's label directions.
- ____ Adequate care and nutrition was provided to the animals, and I will continue to provide adequate care and nutrition until the close of the Fair, Sunday at 5 pm.

I certify that as the owner of this animal, it was not fed any "prohibited" mammalian meat and/or bone meal (per FDA regulation CFR Title 21), and this animal is free from drug and chemical residues.

The undersigned 4-H or FFA member hereby consigns the above animal to the Latah County 4-H and FFA Market Animal Sale (LMAS) for sale at the Latah County Fair. I agree to abide by the presentation guidelines, rules, and directions of the LMAS. I understand that the responsibility for payment of the animal lies with the buyer, not the auctioneer, the LMAS, Latah County, or the University of Idaho. In the event of non-payment, our legal recourse will be solely against the buyer. I understand and agree that this animal may be used for the 4-H and/or FFA Livestock Judging Contest.
