

August 28, 2018, (Madera, CA.) "Lots To See At The Madera Fair"

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Madera Fair is full of fun this year with new entertainment as well as some of your returning favorites!

For the first time at the Madera Fair, the Prehistoric Dinosaur Adventures exhibit will encourage kids to touch and explore in a mobile dinosaur museum filled with fossils, bugs and prehistoric facts. The King of the Dinosaurs and his handler Jim "The Dino Guy" will also make daily appearances sure to provide fun for the whole family.

Returning to the Fair this year is the fun filled Circus Imagination where the kids are the show. Using their imaginations, kids will perform death-defying feats of circus and become show favorites such as Tina The Tightrope Walker and Zazell The Human Cannonball under a fun and colorful circus tent.

Also returning will be the funny, high energy acrobatic comedy juggling act of Something Ridiculous. This crazy duo will keep you and your family entertained throughout the Fair with their high energy antics and hilarious high jinks!

You won't want to miss the Wizard's Challenge and the Dragon's Lair where science comes to life in a world of fantasy. Both kids and the young at heart will enjoy learning about science, technology, engineering, arts and math (STEAM) in this creative exhibit filled with brain teasers, puzzles and lots of fun!

There is more fun in store for you at the fair with the colorful BC Characters roaming the grounds, Hypnotist Suzy Haner, the magic of Frank Thurston, JD Platt's K9 Kings, Robert Castillo's BMX Freestyle team and of course all of the great exhibits and concerts that will keep you busy.

The 2018 Madera District Fair opens Thursday, September 6th for a 4-day run. Discounted admission tickets and carnival coupons are available online and at the Madera Fair office thru September 5th.
