Contestants between the ages of 17-21, as of September 1st, 2020, will compete for the title of Miss Mid-South Fair.
2. All contestants must be single, female, and have never been married, have never been pregnant or be knowingly pregnant at the start of the pageant. If the selected winner marries or becomes pregnant during her reign of one year, she must relinquish her title and any prizes awarded immediately.
3. Each contestant must be of good standing in her community and not have any type of arrest record.
4. Any visible tattoos must be covered with clothing or makeup and any visible piercings must be without jewelry, except earlobes, during the pageant, any fair appearance, or board approved event.
5. Each contestant must be a resident of Tennessee, Mississippi, or Arkansas and a legal U.S. citizen.
6. Former Miss Mid-South Fair, Teen Miss Mid-South Fair, and Miss Mid-South Fair Princess winners are not eligible to compete for the same title again. They cannot compete in a different age bracket until the year after they have crowned their successor.
7. All contestants should give thoughtful consideration to their use of social media and be advised that the Mid-South Fair Scholarship Pageant Directors review all contestants' Internet presence for appropriate online behavior. Any derogatory statements, pictures or videos will be passed on to the judges. The Miss Mid-South Fair Directors have the right to terminate a winner's reign if her social media is found to be disrespectful and distasteful words or images are posted during her year of service.
8. Any unsportsmanlike behavior by any contestant, parent, or guest of the contestant will risk the deduction of points or disqualification from the pageant.
9. The judges will make all decisions affecting this pageant, and these decisions are final. Scores will not be available or shared at the conclusion of the pageant.
10. The Miss Mid-South Fair Scholarship Pageant Directors and Committee reserve the right to change rules and responsibilities at any time as may be deemed expedient. They also have the right to disqualify a contestant or winner if any of the terms and conditions listed is not followed. Disqualified winners must relinquish all gifts and scholarships that have been awarded to her, including her crown, banner, and scepter.

Winners of this pageant will be expected to devote as much time as possible to the Mid-South Fair from September 24- October 4, 2020. She might also be called upon at other times during the year. The Mid-South Fair will provide proper chaperones and no one except the Mid-South Fair chaperones will be allowed to accompany Miss Mid-South Fair, Teen Miss Mid-South Fair, and Miss Mid-South Fair Princess during any official Fair function. The Mid-South Fair and the co-sponsors reserve the right to approve the participation of Miss Mid-South Fair in any contest or special event during the year of her reign.

I fully understand the rules and terms of this agreement.
