North Texas Fair & Rodeo

Livestock Show Rules & Regulations

- Liability Statement

The North Texas Fair & Rodeo will in no case be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage done to, occasioned by, or arising from any animal or article exhibited. The Exhibitor, or Owners, shall indemnify and hold harmless the North Texas State Fair Association against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto, as well as damage or injury to any other person or property, caused by the exhibitor or exhibitor's animals, or arising in any way or connected with the exhibition of the animal. The exhibitor accepts full and complete responsibility for the actions of his or her animals and property, and releases and holds harmless the North Texas State Fair Association from all legal liability, both personal and property including injury and/or death or any other damage whatsoever.

- Bedding

No outside shavings allowed. Shavings & Pellets are available for purchase in the Livestock Office.

- Fans

Electric fans will be permitted, but must not block walking aisles. Generators are allowed.

- Grooming Chutes

Chutes are allowed, but must not block walking aisles.

- Pets

Absolutely NO PETS are allowed on the fairgrounds. Assistance dogs will be allowed with proper identification. This identification should be brought to the LIVESTOCK OFFICE immediately upon arrival. Copies will be made for our files.

As per Human Resources Code, Title 8, Chapter 121:

Sec. 121.005. Responsibilities of persons with disabilities. (a) A person with a disability who uses an assistance animal for assistance in travel is liable for any damages done to the premises or facilities by the animal.

(b) A person with a disability who uses an assistance animal for assistance in travel or auditory awareness shall keep the animal properly harnessed or leashed, and a person who is injured by the animal because of the failure of a person with a disability to properly harness or leash the animal is entitled to maintain a cause of action for damages in a court of competent jurisdiction under the same law applicable to other causes brought for the redress of injuries caused by animals.

- Show Arena Privileges

No person other than the one holding the animal will be allowed in the show ring during the time of the judging except the Superintendent, Judge, Official Reporter, and required Ring Men. Except for exhibitors with special needs, this rule will be rigidly enforced.

- Health Certificate

All Animals are required to have a Health Certificate executed by a licensed Veterinarian.

- Show Order

The Superintendent, and/or the Judge, has the right to change any show order, as deemed necessary before or during any specific livestock show.

- Protest

All protests must be in writing and accompanied with a deposit of $100.00, which will be forfeited if the protest is not sustained. Such protest must state plainly the cause of complaint or appeal, and must be delivered to the Superintendent immediately after the occasion resulting in the protest. Any protest of eligibility regarding age of an animal, must be filed with the Superintendent 2 hours before judging begins.

- All animals must be in place according to the Livestock Show Schedule.

- There are no pre-assigned stalls. First Come, First Served.

- Jr. Heifer exhibitors may also show in the Open Show on Friday 10/16/20 with Open Show entry fee.

- The official classifier(s) for the Jr. Steer Show will review any questionable animals pertaining to the class or breed before entering show arena. If sifted, the animal may show in one of the crossbred classes determined by the official classifier(s).
- All owners of property and livestock shall care for, guard, protect and preserve same as the North Texas State Fair does not undertake to do so, and it shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to said property or the owners thereof.
- Exhibitors will not be allowed to spend the night on the grounds. Night watchmen will be on duty during these hours.
- Any animal or animals properly entered in any show class as eligible for competition must be brought into the arena for exhibition, unless the reason for their nonappearance in the ring is acceptable to the superintendent in charge. All single breeding cattle and steers for exhibition must be shown with a halter and be sufficiently gentle to be properly handled by an attendant.
- There will be no "showing off the trailer". All animals will be stalled.
- Inside show barns: Livestock exhibitors are permitted to display a sign over each animal advertising their own herd. All other forms of signs or advertising must be approved by livestock management, and they reserve the right to have objectionable signs removed. No sign which reflects in any way any commercial product may be placed over any champion, or any livestock exhibit.
- Exhibitors will park trailers only in designated areas. Towing will be enforced. Trailers will be parked on fair grounds, pending weather conditions.
- Designated Livestock Exhibitor Parking is located at the Northwest corner of the fairgrounds. There will be shuttle carts to take you to the livestock barn and back. If for any reason there is not a cart available, please let someone in the livestock office know, and they will radio for a cart to come pick you up and drop you off.
- Parking directly north of the livestock barn is reserved parking only, and towing will be strictly enforced.
- No outside tie outs or trailer tie outs.
- All animals must remain in stalls.
- Exhibitors will enter the fairgrounds at the north gate (Carroll Blvd.) and unload on the north end of the livestock barn. There is a 15 minute time limit for unloading. Please do not leave vehicles unattended.
- All waste will be put in the commercial waste containers located at the north end of the livestock barn. Violators will be released and removed from the grounds.
- All Breed Champions, in all livestock categories, must compete for champion and reserve champion.
- All Beef Cattle Shows – Blow & Show. No glue, adhesives, paint, etc.
- DISORDERLY CONDUCT WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.
- All decisions of the Superintendent will be final, and abuse (verbal or otherwise) towards division Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, or Judges, may be cause for the exhibitors and family to be removed from the fairgrounds and not allowed back.
- No RV Parking/Hook-up allowed on grounds.

At any time you leave the fairgrounds, you must have your hand stamped at the exit gate for re-entry into the grounds.
No refunds will be made in the Main Fair Office, or the Livestock Office.

Trailer Unloading

Trailer unloading will be done on the North Side of the Barns ONLY. No unloading will be permitted on the NORTH EAST side of the Barn, between Fair Hall/Main Fair Office and Barn. If you do so, you will be asked to leave the fairgrounds, with no entry fees refunded.

Trailer Parking

No Charge will be made for Trailer Parking.

All Trailer Parking will be on-site, Overflow Trailer Parking is off-site. NO STALLING AT TRAILER. All animals will be stalling in the livestock barn. If it rains, overflow off-site trailing parking will be available.

Parking Stickers

STICKERS MUST BE AFFIXED TO WINDSHIELD

Each Exhibitor will be given one (1) Parking Sticker. This Parking Sticker is ONLY for the LIVESTOCK PARKING LOT. We will have shuttle carts to take you to and from the Livestock Barn. Parking directly North of the Livestock Barn is Reserved Parking Only. Towing will be enforced.

Additional Livestock Parking Stickers will be available in Livestock Office for $10.00 each.

Lodging

The Preferred Hotel for the North Texas Fair & Rodeo will be listed on the ntfair.com website with link/or contact information. This Hotel will offer special rates for exhibitors and other visitors to the fair during the advertised dates. Reservations should be made through the hotel.

2020 Livestock Judges

Selection of Judges:

- Judges will be selected by the North Texas Fair and Rodeo, and in every case, the judge will be selected with the utmost care, and highest qualifications.
- The decisions of the judges will be final in all cases, except where mistake, fraud, misrepresentation or collusion, not discovered at the time of award, is proven. In such cases, the management or such referee as he may appoint, may make a decision, or the case may be referred to the Executive Committee, from whose decision there can be no appeal.
- If any exhibitors, in any way, whether in person or by agent or servants, interferes with the judges during the adjudication, or shows any disrespect to them or the show, the management may demand a proper apology from such exhibitor, or it may exclude him or her from the ring, and may also withhold such exhibitor to be barred from future participation in the North Texas Fair.
