OLD DOMINION DOES NOT DISAPPOINT Country Act Brings It to Nebraska State Fair

Grand Island, NE – For many in country music who adore “bro country,” they were not disappointed by Friday night’s Old Dominion performance. Under a shower of gemstone lights, the fast-rising hot country artist sold more than 4,000 tickets in a near-sold-out Heartland Event Center at Nebraska State Fair.

Old Dominion performed their latest hits, crooning ballads to an audience who knew every word. Midway through the night, lead singer Matthew Ramsey leapt off of the stage to literally walk the crowd, circling the arena floor.

Hits featuring Old Dominion’s catchy, pop-country sound were sprinkled with new music such as their latest hit, “Hotel Key.” The audience roared back with mega hits in “Song For Another Time,” “No Such Thing As A Broken Heart” and “Written In The Sand.” The song “Snapback” from their first album closed the night in their encore set.

Up With People performs Saturday night and Night Ranger closes out the 2018 concert series Sunday night in the Heartland Event Center presented by the Nebraska Lottery, Mattress Firm and Bristol Windows. Tickets can be purchased at StateFair.org.

The 2018 Nebraska State Fair runs August 24 through September 3 in Grand Island. For more information, log onto StateFair.org for all entertainment features, schedules and food offerings.
