Winners of Second Annual New Mexico State Fair Karaoke Contest Announced

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – Among the many exciting events that happened on the final day of the 2015 New Mexico State Fair, the grand finale karaoke contest was held at the State Fair Pavilion stage and three winners were selected.

15 year old Khaliya Kimberlie Sago from Mescalero, New Mexico was the first place winner and received a $600 prize and an invitation to perform on stage at next year's New Mexico State Fair. Gloria Arredondo of Belen won second place and $250 and the opportunity to perform at the 2016 fair. Third place and $150 was awarded to Jeffery Martin of Albuquerque who is also invited to perform at the fair. Each winner also earned entry into the World Series of Karaoke to be held in Las Vegas in January.

The final round included the best competitors from a series of karaoke events over the last several weeks leading up to and including the Fair.
