Rules and Regulations

1. The Dairy Show will be held on Tuesday of fair week at 8:00AM. The Show order for this year is as follows: Guernsey, Holstein, Jersey, Milking Shorthorn, Red & White, Ayrshire, Brown Swiss. Only these breeds are eligible to be exhibited and shown at the Rockingham County Fair Dairy Show.
2. Open competition is open to out-of-county herds. Junior competition is restricted to youth exhibitors who are bona fide Rockingham 4-H Club and/or FFA members.
3. Entries close the 3rd Sunday of July at 7:00PM. Stall assignments will be based on pre-entries. NO additions except VA Sale of Stars purchases. (copy of purchase receipt must accompany addition and due to Mr. Tim Liskey by Monday following the Sale of Stars).
4. All entries and fees (checks only) should be sent to Mr. Tim Liskey, 657 Cross Keys Rd, Rockingham, VA 22801. Entry fees are due at entry deadline. Make checks payable to the Rockingham County Fair Association. Refunds will be made only with a veterinarian's signed statement.
5. All cattle must be the property of the individual exhibiting them.
6. Registration certificates will be required on all open show exhibits. All dairy animals, original registration papers, and health papers must be at the fairgrounds by 12 Noon Monday of fair week. Grade animals must also have DHIA paper for the Junior Show.
7. No exhibitor shall win more than two premiums in any one class.
8. Space for tack and feed storage costs $5.00 per stall. Reserve extra stalls with your entry.
9. The storage of excessive amounts of hay, feed and straw will not be permitted in the barns and only if space is available after stall assignments have been made. This shall be at the discretion of the barn chairman. Area storing hay/feed/straw cannot be more than three tie rings/stalls and not stacked above the wooden tie walls.
10. Champion awards will not be made unless five or more individual animals of either sex are exhibited in each breed.
11. Point system for determining the Premier Awards is as follows:
Placing - 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10
Points – Senior Females – 20,18,16,14,12,10,8,6,4,2
Points – Junior Females – 10,9,8,7,6,5,4,3,2,1
12. Milkout at the discretion of the Judge.
13. All exhibits in this department are subject to the general rules of the Rockingham County Fair. See General Rules and Regulations for Health Requirements and Barn Area Rules.
14. Family Unit Defined: If a herd is registered in the names of the immediate members of a family, those persons may combine their entries as a "Family Unit", and be considered as one exhibitor for Premier Breeder and/or Premier Exhibitor points or all individual family members may choose to be considered as individuals. Individual exhibitors must notify show management of their choice prior to the show.

15. Any cattle that are shown must be shown in the breed in which they are registered. In case an animal is dual registered, the animal must be shown in one breed or another, not in both.
16. Milk cows may leave at 12:00PM on Friday of fair week. Display areas and Heifers/calves must remain until 9:00PM Saturday of fair week.
17. To obtain an armband, passes or parking pass, you must have a dairy animal that is entered in the Dairy Show which is held on Tuesday of fair week.
18. No head/clipping shoots allowed in dairy barn – must be kept in grassy area between beef/dairy barns.
19. All advertising/sponsors signs cannot be larger than 22" X 28" in size and must be displayed in tack area.
20. No automatic watering systems for livestock will be permitted in the dairy barn.
21. No watering troughs allowed inside of the dairy barn. They must remain on the wash rack.

Show Ring Code of Ethics

Believing it is in the best interest of all breeders of registered cattle to maintain a reputation of integrity and to present a wholesome and progressive image in the show ring the following lists those practices which are considered unacceptable in presenting registered animals in the show ring. The use of such practices or procedures is therefore, considered unethical in the showing of registered cattle.

1. Misrepresenting the age and/or milking status of the animal for the class in which it is shown.
2. Balancing the udder by any means other than leaving naturally produced milk any or all quarters.
3. Setting the teats with mechanical contrivance or with the use of chemical preparation.
4. Treating or massaging any part of the animal's body, particularly the udder, internally or externally with an irritant, counter-irritant or other substance to temporarily improve conformation or produce unnatural animation.
5. Minimizing the effects of crampiness by feeding or injecting drug depressants or applying packs or using an artificial contrivance or therapeutic treatment excepting normal exercises.
6. Blocking the nerves to the foot to prevent limping by injecting drugs.
7. Striking the animal to cause swelling in a depressed area.
8. Surgery of any kind performed to change the natural contour or appearance of the animal's body, hide or hair. Not included is the removal of warts, teats and horns, clipping and dressing of hair and trimming of hooves.
9. Insertion of foreign materials under the skin.
10. Changing the color of hair at any point, spot or area on the animal's body including the blackening of a gray spot.
11. The use of alcoholic beverages in the feed or administered as a drench.
12. Administration of a drug or any kind of prescription internally or externally prior to entering the show ring except for treating a recognized disease or injury and for tranquilizing bulls that may otherwise be dangerous to females in heat. For the purpose of this Code the term "drug"; shall mean any substance, the sale possession or use of which is controlled by license under Federal, State or local laws or regulations and any substance commonly used by medical or veterinary professions which affect the circulatory or central nervous system of a cow.
13. Criticizing or interfering with the judge, show management or other exhibitors while in the show ring or conduct detrimental to the breed or show.
