Rose City Sing-Off Rules

- Groups can be all male, all female, or coed, and may contain up to 20 singers (special exceptions can be made regarding number of singers per group).
- Songs, choreography and dress must be family appropriate and will be subject to screening. The message of the songs performed should be positive. When returning applications please submit song titles, so that we can review the material that will be performed.
- Each group must submit a recording of 2 songs in the form of a YouTube video, CD or MP3 email file. Recordings must be received by November 22, 2019.
- Groups will be considered based on the musical aspects of the Rose City Sing-Off judging criteria and selected by an executive committee. Please turn in this application, audition recording, and application fee by November 22, 2019. After turning in your audition recording, accepted applicants for the Rose City Sing-Off will be notified the week of January 13, 2020.
- Competitors will perform 2 songs totaling no longer than 12 minutes in length on April 18, 2020. Song choices that are to be performed at the Sing-Off must be submitted with the application. Competition song choices do not have to be the same as the audition song choices. Top three teams eligible for additional 2019 Rose Festival showcase performance opportunities.
