

2020 SBC Fair Livestock Auction

Registration will open May 28, 2020.

As a prospective buyer, it is important that you register and obtain a bidder number to use when bidding. On May 28, 2020 go to sbcfair.com and follow the instructions and links that will take you to the auction link. It will help us if you sign up early. It is important that you use your cell phone number when filling out your buyer registration.

Each prospective buyer will be able to download an auction book listing the animals in the order of sale, exhibitor name and club/chapter from the fair website on Friday, May 28th.

As each animal goes up for sale, the auctioneer will ask for bids in dollars per head. You will use the auction website to bid on the animal. The bidding will continue until there are no more bids. If you are the highest bidder, you will receive a text message that you can let the auction company know the destination and disposition of your purchase.

AFTER THE SALE OF THE ANIMAL

Choose one of the following options:

- LIVE PICK-UP; You may pick up your purchases from the fairgrounds yourself at a pre scheduled time on June 1, 2020.
- RESALE; You may sell your purchase to the packer at the resale price which will be announced at the beginning of the sale.
- CUSTOM TERMINATION; You may send the animal for processing. All animals will be sent by the fair to the State Plant for processing. The fee will be collected by the fair when you pay for your purchases. The State Plant will transport your purchase to the processor of your choice. You may choose Barstow Country Butchering, Scotts Custom Meats, Hottinger Family Meats, Purdy's Quality Meats or Pomona Food Locker. The processors will charge you a fee, listed in the auction book, per pound for the cut and wrap of your animal.
