Dog Showmanship

Dog Showmanship Criteria

All dogs entered in Showmanship should be on proper leads, collars, and chains for conformation classes

Presentation of Handler: A neat overall picture should be presented to the judge. A complete uniform is recommended.

Knowledge: Exhibitors should be able to answer questions regarding feeding, grooming, etc. and be knowledgeable about the parts of the dog.

Presentation of Dog: This part is self-explanatory.

Condition: Teeth should be clean and white. Look inside the ears and make sure the exhibitor has taken a rag and cleaned the dirt out. The eyes are not to be runny, as the exhibitor should have cleaned them off.

Body & Coat: The important emphasis is that the dog has been well groomed and has had a bath. All dogs should be groomed to meet Breed Standards` the nails should be trimmed.

Group Showing: Points will be awarded based on how well the exhibitor and dog perform against others in a group. Exhibitor should keep the dog between the exhibitor and the judge. They should not stand in one place while the judge moves around them.
