PJ Masks Memorial Day Meet and Greet at the Sacramento County Fair

Sacramento, Calif., (5/9/18) – PJ Masks is a superhero show for preschoolers. The heroes are 6-year-old children Connor, Amaya and Greg. Each gains a special animal power and transforms into Catboy, Owelette and Gekko when they put their pajamas on. As each episode unfolds there are a range of ethical and relational dilemmas the characters navigate and solve to the delight of over 1.6 million Disney Junior TV viewers.

This Memorial Day, May 27, 2019, the Sacramento County Fair is hosting a special appearance for PJ Masks' Northern California friends. At the Fair, the PJ Masks heroes will pose with children and families and give out Super Hugs. "These mystery-solving superheroes encourage children to spark their curiosity and inspire imaginative play and teamwork along the way," said Pamela Fyock, chief executive officer of the Sacramento County Fair.

To memorialize and share the meet and greet with friends and family, the Fair will have a professional photographer on hand to capture the moment and make photos available for a small fee.

The 30-minute meet and greet sessions at the Sacramento County Fair are Monday, May 27, 2019 at 2:30, 3:30, 4:30 and 5:30 p.m. and are included with Fair admission. Regular adult admission is $8 and kids 12 and under are always free. Discount pre-sale tickets and additional information are available at sacfair.com
