

TEN GUIDELINES FOR PARENTS OF LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS

- You should not feed, train and/or care for the animal because you are teaching your child responsibility.
- You shall forgive your child for making mistakes because everyone makes mistakes.
- You shall not get mad if your child forgets items in the show box because you have forgotten things yourself.
- You shall assist show management because this is a difficult job and they are doing it for your child.
- You shall make sure your child is on time for all show activities, hence not making others wait for you.
- You shall make sure your child's entry forms and registration papers are in order and filed with the fair office by the designated date and time.
- You shall teach your child that winning a blue ribbon is a desirable goal, but making friends and learning from them along the way is a more worthy goal.
- You shall not complain about the judge because it is his or her opinion that is being sought.
- You shall remember that livestock projects are teaching projects, not necessarily money-making projects.
- You shall remember that the livestock project is a family project that shall be enjoyed and supported by the entire family.

RED TAG POLICY

This policy is to ensure that livestock exhibited at the Siskiyou Golden Fair are cared for and treated in a humane and ethical manner and that livestock pens/stalls are suitable for public display. Livestock exhibitors (junior and senior) are solely responsible for the care of their animals while on exhibit at the Siskiyou Golden Fair. If the Livestock Superintendent becomes aware of any livestock exhibit that is not being cared for in an acceptable state of pen cleanliness as determined by the Livestock Superintendent or is not being maintained, the following will occur:

- The Livestock Superintendent will determine the name and affiliation of the responsible exhibitor.
- A Red Tag with the following information will be affixed to the exhibitor's pen/stall: exhibitors name, observed problem, date and time of citation, Livestock Superintendent's signature. The Livestock Superintendent will make reasonable efforts to contact the exhibitor's advisor, parent or designee and advise them of the situation resulting in the Red Tag citation.
- It is the exhibitor's responsibility to respond to the Red Tag by contacting the Livestock Superintendent within 12 hours of the citation being issued. The exhibitor will formulate and initiate a plan of correction approved by the Livestock Superintendent.
- Any exhibitor failing to make contact within 12 hours will be issued another citation.
- Any exhibitor receiving two Red Tag citations during the fair will be declared ineligible for further competition, including participation in the Junior Livestock Auction. All fair premiums and awards earned will be forfeited, and the exhibitor will be required to remove their animal(s) from the fairgrounds.
