

2021 Siskiyou Golden Fair TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR PARENTS OF YOUNGSTERS SHOWING LIVESTOCK

1. Thou shalt not feed, train and care for the animal thou are trying to teach the child responsibility.
2. Thou shalt forgive a child for making mistakes in the showing for thou hast made mistakes too!
3. Thou shalt not get mad when thy child forgets items in the showbox for one day thou may forget showbox.
4. Thou shalt help the show management for they are doing a job that thou would not want to do.
5. Thou shalt see that they child is on time for all show activities for thou would not want to wait on another.
6. Thou shalt make sure thy child has animals entered and registration papers in order by the designated time.
7. Thou shalt teach the child that winning a blue ribbon is a desirable goal but making friends along the way is a more worthy goal.
8. Thou shalt not complain about the judge for it is his opinion that has been sought.
9. Thou shalt remember that livestock projects are teaching projects, not necessarily money-making projects.
10. Thou shalt remember that the livestock project is a family project that shall be enjoyed and supported by the entire family.

2021 Siskiyou Golden Fair JUNIOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR CODE OF CONDUCT

Exhibiting livestock at the Siskiyou Golden Fair is a privilege and must be respected as such. To that end, all junior exhibitors who wish to sell and/or show at the Siskiyou Golden Fair must adhere to the Code of Conduct to be eligible to participate at the fair. This Code of Conduct covers conduct of the exhibitor from the Monday before the opening day of fair through Sunday, the last day of the fair. Violations of the Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. An investigation of alleged violations will be conducted, and a decision rendered by the appropriate involved parties according to the Code of Conduct protocol. Violations may result in loss of right to sell animal(s) at the auction.

- You will refrain from any use of alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language during the Siskiyou Golden Fair. You will also refrain from being in the company of minors who are using alcohol, drugs, tobacco or obscene language.
- You will treat your animals in a safe and kind manner. Animals will have the necessary feed and water the entire time they are at the fairgrounds.
- You will keep the animal pens clean and free of hazards at all times.
- You will treat adults, especially those in authority, with respect.
- You will follow all State and Local rules that apply to your particular project(s).
- If you are staying in the fair camping area, or visiting friends in the fair camping area, you will abide by all curfews and other camping area rules.
- You will not allow an adult to perform your duties including fitting an animal for show, cleaning pens, feeding or watering. You may exchange duties with fellow club members or fellow junior exhibitors.

2021 Siskiyou Golden Fair RED TAG POLICY

This policy is to ensure that livestock exhibited at the Siskiyou Golden Fair are cared for and treated in a humane and ethical manner and that livestock pens/stalls are suitable for public display.

Livestock exhibitors (junior and senior) are solely responsible for the care of their animals while on exhibit at the Siskiyou Golden Fair. If the Livestock Superintendent becomes aware of any livestock exhibit that is not being cared for in an acceptable state of pen cleanliness as determined by the Livestock Superintendent or is not being maintained, the following will occur:

- The Livestock Superintendent will determine the name and affiliation of the responsible exhibitor.
- A Red Tag with the following information will be affixed to the exhibitor's pen/stall: exhibitors name, observed problem, date and time of citation, Livestock Superintendent's signature. The Livestock Superintendent will make reasonable efforts to contact the exhibitor's advisor, parent or designee and advise them of the situation resulting in the Red Tag citation.
- It is the exhibitor's responsibility to respond to the Red Tag by contacting the Livestock Superintendent within 12 hours of the citation being issued. The exhibitor will formulate and initiate a plan of correction approved by the Livestock Superintendent.
- Any exhibitor failing to make contact within 12 hours will be issued another citation.
- Any exhibitor receiving two Red Tag citations during the fair will be declared ineligible for further competition, including participation in the Junior Livestock Auction. All fair premiums and awards earned will be forfeited, and the exhibitor will be required to remove their animal(s) from the fairgrounds.
- Any exhibitor that is required to remove their animal(s) from the fairgrounds must do so within 12 hours from the time of notification and coordinate with the Livestock Superintendent.
- Adults are not to groom, or in any way, care for animals of junior exhibitors. Violation of this rule will result in a red tag.
