- 2) Only members of a St. Charles County 4-H club or FFA program may exhibit with the following exceptions; 4-H members or FFA members in Warren, Franklin, and Lincoln counties may exhibit in Beef and Sheep breeding stock. In addition, members from Warren and Franklin counties may exhibit in Breeding Rabbits.
- 3) St. Charles County FFA members exhibiting must abide by all rules of the fair.
- 4) Entry fees must be paid via online to complete online entries: $4.00 per head for beef ($1.00 of entry fee will go towards the Beef Checkoff). $2.00 per head for Goats, Sheep and Swine; $1.00 per head for Rabbits, Poultry and Waterfowl except for entries that are pens of 3. The entry fee pays for the insurance.
- 5) Liability Insurance for all livestock exhibits is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
- 6) The department superintendent will assign all stalls/pens.
- 7) Please refer to each specific animal department for entry times and release times! All exceptions must be approved by superintendents.
- 8) Livestock entries will be limited to 4-H and FFA members that are enrolled in the projects in which they exhibit. Exhibitors must be in good standings in their 4-H club or FFA chapter to exhibit livestock. If an exhibitor has been banned from participation in any other fair in the state of Missouri for the current or previous year, they shall also be banned from participation in the St. Charles County Fair, Inc.
- 9) All livestock exhibitors must have a current Missouri Youth Show-Me Quality Assurance Certification.
- 10) All livestock exhibitors are required to assist on Saturday, July 20, 2019 with set up and at the final clean up on Sunday, July 28, 2019. Checks will be issued at 10:00am on Sunday at the Livestock Office, checks will not be issued no earlier than Sunday and until clean-up is complete.

- 11) Animals must be shown and groomed by owner or other St. Charles County 4-H or FFA member.
- 12) Livestock Exhibitors Responsibility:
 - a. All exhibitors must keep stalls and/or pens in a clean and neat condition and the space over which visitors will pass must be kept clean and clear of rubbish at all times. No excessive hay, straw or feed in aisle ways. Any exhibitor not keeping proper care of animal(s) and stalls/pens and helping with clean up after release of livestock will forfeit premium.
 - b. Each livestock exhibitor must furnish their own water buckets and feed troughs.
 - c. Livestock exhibitors must bring their own supply of feed.
- 13) No use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs by youth exhibitors will be tolerated. Exhibitors will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money.
- 14) When there is but one exhibitor competing for a premium, premium will be awarded according to the merits of the exhibit(s) and the opinion of the judge.
- 15) Any attempt by any exhibitor, either personally or through an agent, to corrupt the judge or exert undue influence will subject the offender to expulsion from the grounds, and they will thereafter be prohibited from exhibiting or other privileges until same are restored by written order of the Fair Board.
- 16) Unnatural practices of any kind will not be tolerated. If any animal is found to have been tampered with shall be disqualified from competition. This does not apply to polishing and training of horns and hoofs.
- 17) Exhibitor and parents agree to abide by all St. Charles County Fair Rules & Regulations. (A copy of the Rules and Regulations is available at the St. Charles County Extension Center or Fair website). Any person who violates any of the forgoing or special rules will forfeit all privileges and premium and be subjected to such penalty as the management may order.
- 18) If an animal dies prior to the fair, substitutions of eligible animals may be permitted at the discretion of the department superintendent(s). If the exhibitor substitutes an animal without the knowledge of the superintendent, all premiums and sale proceeds will be forfeited to the St. Charles County Fair, Inc. as liquidated damages and the exhibitor and his/ her immediate family may be banned from participation in future years at the discretion of the Fair Board.
- 19) If an animal dies during the fair, the insured animals will not be replaced. They will be given the insurance premium of the market price of the animal. If the animal is not a covered animal under the insurance policy, animals can be replaced with the same species of like characteristics under the direction of the species superintendent.
- 20) An official veterinarian will be on the grounds to inspect animals upon arrival
- 21) Superintendents and/or their assistants are to be on duty when exhibits arrive in their departments and remain in charge of department until all exhibits have been claimed or moved by owners.

- 22) Each superintendent, or one or more of their assistants, shall supervise the daily morning clean up.
- 23) Each livestock superintendent is charged with caring for and returning the computer class list of their department to the Livestock Office located above the stage in Show Barn. Department superintendents must check on the exhibits in each class, and mark the computer class list showing which animals were exhibited in each class and which were awarded premiums.
- 24) After all entries are made the superintendent will have charge of the computer class list. The judge or judges must not have access to the computer list until after the awards are made in each class.
- 25) As soon as possible after judging is completed in a department, the department superintendent shall turn computer class list into the Livestock Office located above the stage in the Show Barn.
- 26) Any animal disqualified for age or health reasons must leave the fairgrounds and cannot be replaced by another animal.
- 27) Sale signs allowed for breeding stock only. Exhibitor must check with department superintendent before displaying signs.
- 28) The St. Charles County Fair Board and Livestock Auction Committee have set forth the following Dress Code for all livestock exhibitors. Exhibitors showing and selling their animals in the livestock Auction should adhere to the following show attire:

The Alex Boschert Memorial Market Steer Award & Market Hog Award

Alex Boschert memorial steer and hog award is given in memory of Alex Boschert who passed away in 2017. Alex grew up in a 4-H family, showing steers and hogs at the fair. Alex truly loved the fair. Even after graduating from 4-H Alex volunteered his time to help out at the fair. He had joined the fair board just months before his death. Alex never had the best of everything, but he made the best of what he had & was proud of the animals that he showed. Alex knew the value of hard work, agriculture and volunteering for his community- all things he learned while in 4-H. Alex's patient, strong and willing spirit are missed at the fair each year, but his memory will live on through this award.

One beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor will be chosen. The $75 cash award and plaque recipients will recipient will be announced at the fair.

The one beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor who meet these qualifications and stands out in the requirements will be chosen for the Alex Boschert Memorial Award:

1. Exhibitor must have participated in all pre fair set up.
2. Exhibitor must be a 4-H member in good standings
3. Exhibitor must take pride in their exhibit.
4. Exhibitor must be willing to share their learned skills with other members
5. Exhibitor must be present throughout the fair and willing to lend a hand wherever needed.
