 - b. 4-H or FFA members from Warren and Franklin counties may exhibit in Breeding Rabbits.
- 7) Livestock entries will be limited to 4-H and FFA members that are enrolled in the projects in which they exhibit. Exhibitors must be in good standing in their 4-H club or FFA chapter to exhibit livestock. If an exhibitor has been banned from participation in any other fair in the state of Missouri for the current or previous year, they shall also be banned from participation in the St. Charles County Fair, Inc.

- 8) All livestock exhibitors must have a current Missouri Youth Show-Me Quality Assurance Certification.

Superintendent Expectations

- 9) The department superintendent will assign all stalls/pens.
- 10) Please refer to each specific animal department for entry times and release times! All exceptions must be approved by superintendents.
- 11) Superintendents and/or their assistants are to be on duty when exhibits arrive in their departments and remain in charge of department until all exhibits have been claimed or moved by owners.
- 12) Each superintendent, or one or more of their assistants, shall supervise the daily morning clean up.
- 13) Each livestock superintendent is charged with caring for and returning the computer class list of their department to the Livestock Office located above the stage in Show Barn. Department superintendents must check on the exhibits in each class, and mark the computer class list showing which animals were exhibited in each class and which were awarded premiums.
- 14) After all entries are made the superintendent will have charge of the computer class list. The judge or judges must not have access to the computer list until after the awards are made in each class.
- 15) As soon as possible after judging is completed in a department, the department superintendent shall turn computer class list into the Livestock Office located above the stage in the Show Barn.

Exhibitor Expectations

- 16) Auction earnings and premium checks will be issued at 10:00am on Sunday, August 2, 2020 at the Livestock Office, checks will not be issued no earlier than Sunday and until clean-up is complete.
- 17) Animals must be shown and groomed by owner or other St. Charles County 4-H or FFA member.
- 18) Livestock Exhibitors Responsibility:
 - a. All exhibitors must keep stalls and/or pens in a clean and neat condition and the space over which visitors will pass must be kept clean and clear of rubbish at all times. No excessive hay, straw or feed in aisle ways. Any exhibitor not keeping proper care of animal(s) and stalls/pens and helping with clean up after release of livestock will forfeit premium.

- b. Each livestock exhibitor must furnish their own water buckets and feed troughs.
 - c. Livestock exhibitors must bring their own supply of feed.
- 19) No use of alcohol, tobacco, or illegal drugs by youth exhibitors will be tolerated. Exhibitors will be asked to leave with their animals and forfeit their premium money.
- 20) When there is but one exhibitor competing for a premium, premium will be awarded according to the merits of the exhibit(s) and the opinion of the judge. In addition, a champion trophy will be awarded according to the judges discretion.
- 21) Any attempt by any exhibitor, either personally or through an agent, to corrupt the judge or exert undue influence will subject the offender to expulsion from the grounds, and they will thereafter be prohibited from exhibiting or other privileges until same are restored by written order of the Fair Board.
- 22) Unnatural practices of any kind will not be tolerated. If any animal is found to have been tampered with it shall be disqualified from competition. This does not apply to polishing and training of horns and hoofs.
- 23) Exhibitor and parents agree to abide by all St. Charles County Fair Rules & Regulations. (A copy of the Rules and Regulations is available at the St. Charles County Extension Center or Fair website). Any person who violates any of the forgoing or special rules will forfeit all privileges and premium and be subjected to such penalty as the management may order.
- 24) If an animal dies prior to the fair, substitutions of eligible animals may be permitted at the discretion of the department superintendent(s).
- a. If the exhibitor substitutes an animal without the knowledge of the superintendent, all premiums and sale proceeds will be forfeited to the St. Charles County Fair, Inc. as liquidated damages and the exhibitor and his/ her immediate family may be banned from participation in future years at the discretion of the Fair Board.
- 25) If an animal dies during the fair, the insured animals will not be replaced. They will be given the insurance premium of the market price of the animal. If the animal is not a covered animal under the insurance policy, animals can be replaced with the same species of like characteristics under the direction of the species superintendent.
- 26) An official veterinarian will be on the grounds to inspect animals upon arrival.
- 27) Any animal disqualified for age or health reasons must leave the fairgrounds and cannot be replaced by another animal.
- 28) Sale signs allowed for breeding stock only. Exhibitor must check with department superintendent before displaying signs.
- 29) The St. Charles County Fair Board and Livestock Auction Committee have set forth the following Dress Code for all livestock exhibitors. Exhibitors showing and selling their animals in the livestock Auction should adhere to the following show attire:

The Alex Boschert Memorial Market Steer Award & Market Hog Award

Alex Boschert memorial steer and hog award is given in memory of Alex Boschert who passed away in 2017. Alex grew up in a 4-H family, showing steers and hogs at the fair. Alex truly loved the fair. Even after graduating from 4-H Alex volunteered his time to help out at the fair. He had joined the fair board just months before his death. Alex never had the best of everything, but he made the best of what he had & was proud of the animals that he showed. Alex knew the value of hard work, agriculture and volunteering for his community- all things he learned while in 4-H. Alex's patient, strong and willing spirit are missed at the fair each year, but his memory will live on through this award.

One beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor will be chosen. The $75 cash award and plaque recipients will recipient will be announced at the fair.

The one beef exhibitor and one swine exhibitor who meet these qualifications and stands out in the requirements will be chosen for the Alex Boschert Memorial Award:

1. Exhibitor must have participated in all pre fair set up.
2. Exhibitor must be a 4-H member in good standings
3. Exhibitor must take pride in their exhibit.
4. Exhibitor must be willing to share their learned skills with other members
5. Exhibitor must be present throughout the fair and willing to lend a hand wherever needed.

MARY FERGUSON MEMORIAL POULTRY AWARD

The Mary Ferguson Memorial Poultry Award is given in memory of Mary Ferguson who passed away in 2001. Mary and her husband, Daryl, were faithful supporters of the Poultry Project. Mary was always there to help her grandchildren, as well as other youth and adults. Mary truly loved all kinds of poultry from the fluffy baby chicks to the not so neat market chickens. Mary's quiet, gentle nature will be missed, but her memory will live on through this award. The $25.00 award recipient will be announced at the fair.

- 1) Exhibitor must show a real interest in his or her poultry.
- 2) Exhibitor must be a 1st or 2nd year poultry member.
- 3) Exhibitor must have participated in all pre-fair set up.
- 4) Exhibitor must be a member in good standings.
- 5) Exhibitor must have worked well with others, both youth and adults.

LIVESTOCK AUCTION

- 1) Auction will be held Thursday, July 30, 2020, beginning at 7:00 p.m.
- 2) All livestock entered in the livestock auction must be sold – no exceptions. If a 4-H member decides to enter the animal (that was sold) in the Missouri State Fair, they must have the consent of the buyer and complete a Missouri State Fair Advance Sale Agreement which must be signed by all parties.
- 3) If you plan to enter your steer, market lamb or market goat in the livestock sale and plan to take it to the Mo. State Fair, the steer, market lamb or market goat must be nose printed at the St. Charles Co. pre-fair weigh-in. Market Steers: February 29, 2020. Market Lamb: May 2, 2020. Goats will be nose printed at the market lamb weigh-in, May 2, 2020. Also, you must indicate your intentions on your St. Charles Co. Fair livestock online entry form which will be due June 15, 2020.
- 4) State Fair Livestock entry forms are due in the Missouri State Fair office by July 1 and must be signed by St. Charles County 4-H/FFA youth staff.
- 5) The auction order will be as follows: market beef, market hogs, market lambs, market goats, market rabbits, and market chickens. The sale order is generated by the livestock software program. The Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion beef will be sold first, followed by other steers and heifers. (Champion Market Hog followed by all other market hogs, Champion Market Lamb, followed by all other market lambs, etc.)
- 6) Exhibitors of blue and red ribbon steers, market hogs, market lambs, market goats, market rabbits, and market chickens are invited to sell.
- 7) Only one (1) animal per exhibitor will be sold. When an exhibitor checks in their animal, they will be asked to fill out a check-in card. On this card, the exhibitor will mark if they wish to sell this animal at the auction. If the exhibitor is showing more than one animal and would like to switch which animal is being sold at the auction, he/she must notify the auction committee in the livestock auction office prior to the auction sale bill being made (occurs on Wednesday after the last show). If the sale bill has been made, then no changes can be made.
- 8) Exhibitors are not required to sell their animals in the auction; however Grand Champion and Reserve Champion Steers of the show must be sold.
- 9) Exhibitors must agree to water, feed and otherwise care for the livestock until release time on Saturday or until they are removed on Sunday.
- 10) All owners must show and sell their own animal. (Committee will rule exceptions)
- 11) Any changes in destinations must be submitted to Tim Snyders at 314-280-7766 by 5:00 p.m. on Friday evening following the auction.
- 12) The St. Charles County Fair, Inc. shall retain 2% of the sale price for future upgrades and additions to the show barn and other livestock barns, equipment, and livestock auction expenses. Each livestock exhibitor will receive a photograph taken with the buyer.
- 13) Exhibitors are welcome and encouraged to send letters to potential buyers inviting them to attend the livestock auction at 7:00 p.m. ONLY previous buyers (from the past 3 years) will receive an invitation letter to the livestock auction from the livestock auction committee that will also include 2 passes to enter the fairgrounds and 2 dinner and drink tickets.
