Hello Artist,

We welcome your interest in becoming a 2019 Wild West Art Show participant. As we prepare for our 25th show we have come full circle and are building on our successful return to a fine arts and true craft presentation event.

In 1995, the Wild West Art Show began bringing something new and wonderful to the rodeo experience – world class Western art and master craft from all mediums. Over the years the show evolved and worked with different ideas and themes, now we are back to the beginning, full circle, what the rodeo folks like best, the heritage and culture shared at the Wild West Art Show.

Each year the Wild West Art Show is held concurrently with the St. Paul Rodeo during the 4th of July week. Our rodeo is the draw, attracting attendance of 53,000 plus, from the I-5 corridor and beyond. It is promoted with over $400,000 of measured media coverage. We receive national coverage through such publications as The Western Horseman, regional coverage through the Capital Press and local coverage from the Oregonian and Statesman Journal. We also receive exposure with radio partner Entercom (99.5 The Wolf) and live Portland TV morning and evening news shows.

The next pages contain additional information and include an application for our 2019 Wild West Art Show. Applications are due March 31, 2019. We anticipate an exciting response this year because of the success the artists experienced at our show last year. Booth space is held on a first-paid, first-reserved basis, so don't delay. Booths in our exhibition tent include 8 foot high drape dividers and have electrical connections.

Come join us for our 25th year at the St. Paul Rodeo Wild West Art Show. Art with Rodeo: great hospitality, western music, and exposure to an appreciative crowd. What could be better?

We welcome your interest, comments, and questions. We are excited to offer this event and look forward to hearing from you soon.
