Junior Meat Goat Show Rules:

The State Fair General Rules, the Livestock Rules and the Show Ring Code of Ethics apply to this department. By submitting an entry you agree to read and abide by these rules.

1. See General Livestock Rules for information pertaining to health regulations (including Scrapie Identification requirements and issues pertaining to contagious and infectious diseases). The National Show Ring Code of Ethics shall govern the livestock show as found in the General Livestock Rules. The State Fair of Virginia reserves the right to test any entry for violative drug residues as described in the National Show Ring Code of Ethics.
2. Participants must enter the FairEntry system through the Youth Livestock web site. For State Fair entry system go to www.ext.vt.edu/youthlivestock under 'Shows' and then 'State fair' prior to August 15th. Entries must be made online, printed, signed (FFA Only) and mailed by August 15.
3. The State Fair of Virginia Junior Meat Goat Show is open to all Virginia 4-H and Virginia FFA youth which are in good standing with their respective organizations and meet the entry requirements of each species division. Exhibitors must be at least 9 years of age by September 30 of the current year (exception for 8 & under sheep costume class) and must not have had their 19th birthday before January 1 of current year. Exhibitor eligibility and entries must be verified through the signature of a county Exhibitor eligibility and entries must be verified through the 4-HOnline system or signature of an FFA advisor on the entry form.
4. All youth exhibiting beef, meat goats, sheep, and swine must be YMQA (Youth Meat Quality Assurance) certified before August 15th. For more information about YMQA or to be YMQA certified please contact your local county Extension agent.
5. Goats which have participated in any sale or premium auction associated with another fair or livestock show after the State Fair of Virginia ownership deadline are ineligible for exhibition. This rule applies even if there was not a change in ownership (i.e. goats are ineligible even if they are "bought back" or "no-saled").
6. Exhibitors must show their own entries unless the exhibitor has more than one animal in the same class, or permission is given by the show superintendent. Substitute show persons must be eligible 4-H or FFA members with junior meat goat entries.
7. All youth beef, sheep, goat and swine entries are subject to on-farm inspections to verify entry information. All exhibitors agree to accommodate such inspections.
8. All animal are subject to be used for educational purposes (skillathon contest, judging classes, etc.) upon request by show staff/superintendents. Upon entry, exhibitors agree to providing animals for these purposes upon request.

Junior Meat Goat Show

9. All goats must remain in the designated penning area and immediate area upon arrival until released from the Fair. Goats are not allowed to be taken to trailers, cattle barns, cattle tie-out area, or other areas away from the goat barn at any time. All tack and fitting areas for goats must remain in the designated area adjacent to the barns as defined by show management.
10. Exhibitors are expected to care for their animals in an acceptable manner and adhere to quality assurance guidelines. Application of ice or iced water in any form is prohibited (sprays, packs, blankets, or towels). Use of irritants including alcohols, sprays, and other irritants is prohibited. The use of external or internal tail stimulants is prohibited.
11. The use of muzzles is prohibited.
12. Drenching of goats is prohibited.
13. The use of coloring agents is prohibited.
14. The use of adhesives and glues for purpose of fitting hair is allowed, however the addition of twine, hair, or any substance (such as to "build" legs) is prohibited.
15. Goats shall be penned on natural bedding (i.e. straw, wood shavings, wood chips, or bark- no carpet).
16. Pen assignments will be by county based on number of entries.
17. Health or other issues that arise with goats which require treatment while at the State Fair of Virginia shall be done with the knowledge and supervision of the show veterinarian and superintendent. The show management reserves the right to remove entries from the fairgrounds for this purpose.
18. Show rails (racks) will not be allowed inside the barns. All show rails must be kept outdoors.

SPECIAL RULES - MARKET GOATS and COMMERCIAL DOES

1. To be eligible for exhibition, market goats and commercial does must have been nominated, weighed, and identified at an official State Fair of Virginia site. Nominations will be taken at several sites around the state in late June. Past exhibitors and county extension offices will be notified as to the dates, times and locations nominations will be taken. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to properly nominate his or her goats at one of the locations. At the time of nomination goats will be weighed, and individually identified with an official ear tag. Only goats that have been nominated and properly weighed and identified will be eligible for competition at the State Fair of Virginia. Each exhibitor may nominate a total of twelve (12) goats (wethers and does, to be shown as either market goats or commercial does). Each exhibitor may nominate goats at only one location.
2. Market goats and Commercial Does should be born on or after January 1 and must have their milk teeth and no eruption of permanent teeth.
3. Market goats and Commercial Does must be owned, separated, and cared for by the exhibitor on or before the date of nomination and continuously thereafter.
4. Market Goats may be wethers or does. Wethers must show no evidence of testicular tissue and be completely healed from castration.
5. Wethers must be dehorned, or have horns blunted.
6. Goats exhibited in the market goat division may not be shown in the commercial or registered breeding doe divisions. Commercial Does may not be shown in the Market Goat or Registered Breeding Doe divisions.
7. Market Goats and Commercial Does will be shown by weight. Market Goats and Commercial Does must weigh a minimum of 45 pounds (no maximum weight limit). Re-weights will not be allowed. Class weight breaks and Division assignments will be made at the discretion of show officials. An attempt will be made to limit classes to a maximum of 20 goats and Divisions assigned with a goal of having approximately the same number of goats in each Division. All goats weighing under 45 pounds will be allowed to show in a feeder goat class but will not be eligible for premiums or awards.

2018 State Fair of Virginia

8. The market goat show will be terminal for the Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion goats. Exhibitors of these goats qualify for the Scholarship Program (see Scholarship documents for specific policies, regulations, and details). The show is also terminal for Class Winners participating in the Scholarship Program. Participation in the scholarship program for class winners is optional.
9. Final designation of market goat and commercial doe entries will be made at official weighing.
10. All first and second place class winners must be shown to compete for their respective Grand Champion and Division Champion honors. Failure to do so will be considered a violation of the National Show Ring Code of Ethics and appropriate action taken.
11. A maximum of 4 total market goats and commercial does may be shown per exhibitor.

SPECIAL RULES - REGISTERED BREEDING DOES

1. Does must be owned, separated, and cared for by the exhibitor before July 1 of the current year and continuously thereafter.
2. Registered Does of any meat breed are eligible. Does must be recorded with, and have registration papers issued from, a national breed association. Junior show guidelines established by individual breeds will be followed regarding registration requirements for exhibition. All does must be registered with their respective breed and carry their corresponding tag and/or tattoo.
3. Breeds must have a minimum of 10 does from at least 3 exhibitors to qualify for a breed show. Breeds not meeting this requirement will be exhibited in the All Other Breeds division.
4. All does must be the property of, registered, and certificates issued in the name of the exhibitor prior to July 1 of the current year. Registration papers must be available for inspection at the fair. Ownership of registered does may be joint with an immediate family member, provided exhibitor's name is found on the certificate. For does with joint ownership, entries may be made in the name of only one exhibitor (this also applies to pair/group classes).
5. The date of birth must be verified for all entries by their registration papers.
6. Does exhibited in the youth registered breeding doe division may not be shown in the market goat division or commercial doe division.
7. All exhibitors must check their entries and registration papers with show officials by the designated time.
8. Classes with more than twenty head may be split at the discretion of show officials.
9. Exhibitors are limited to a total of two (2) premiums per class in individual classes, and a maximum of 6 total registered breeding doe entries.

SPECIAL RULES - SHOWMANSHIP

1. Only exhibitors entered in the Junior Meat Goat show are eligible to compete in showmanship classes.
2. Showmanship competition for market goat, commercial doe and registered breeding doe exhibitors will be combined.
3. Showmanship classes will be divided by age as follows:
 - A. Novice Division- for exhibitors showing for the first time at the State Fair, and who are 12 years of age or younger on September 30 of current year
 - B. Junior Division- exhibitors 12 years of age and younger on September 30 of current year
 - C. Intermediate Division- exhibitors 13 to 15 years of age on September 30 of current year

4. Classes with a large number of participants may be divided into smaller preliminary classes.

2018 State Fair of Virginia

Junior Meat Goat Show

5. Exhibitors must show their own animal in showmanship. The animal must be entered in the junior meat goat show. Exhibitor's goats that are eliminated from the show due to weight requirements may be used in showmanship.

SPECIAL RULES - PREMIER EXHIBITOR PROGRAM

1. The Premier Exhibitor Program is designed to recognize junior meat goat exhibitors which demonstrate comprehensive skills related to the meat goat project and industry; including knowledge of production/management practices, genetics, carcass and end product traits, animal health, and nutrition, along with animal evaluation, showmanship, and live animal show ring performance.
2. Premier Exhibitors will be divided into the following age categories for recognition and awards:
 - A. Junior Division- exhibitors 12 years of age and younger on September 30 of current year
 - B. Intermediate Division- exhibitors 13 to 15 years of age on September 30 of current year
 - C. Senior Division- exhibitors 16 years of age and older on September 30 of current year
3. Ranking of exhibitors within each age category will be based on the following:
 - A. 35% Goat Skillathon Contest – The sheep Skillathon will take place at a predetermined time, and exhibitors are responsible for completing the various stations of the contest during the advertised time. The skillathon will test exhibitors' knowledge in four basic areas: nutrition, products, genetics/reproduction, and management. Portions of the skillathon contest may be separate for Junior, Intermediate, and Senior exhibitors.
 - B. 30% Goat Quiz – The quiz will be a component of the Skillathon.
 - C. 20% Showmanship – Exhibitors must participate in showmanship.
 - D. 15% Goat Placing – Highest placing on any goat exhibited (market goat, commercial doe, or registered doe).
 - E. Ties in total score within an age category will be broken sequentially on quiz score, skillathon score, and showmanship score.
4. Exhibitors must participate in all areas of Premier Exhibitor program to be eligible for recognition and awards. Exhibitors participating in all categories will automatically be considered for awards.
5. Appropriate recognition and awards will be provided for each age division.

SPECIAL RULES - SHEEP/GOAT COSTUME CLASSES

1. Exhibitors will write a narrative to be read during the competition. Narrative forms will be sent after entries are received.
2. A panel of judges will use the following standards when judging the classes:
 - a. Exhibitor's and animal's costume. Costume may be made by the exhibitor or purchased. Score = 40%
 - b. Poise and appearance (accessories, presentation, appropriate for exhibitor's age and style of garment, etc.). Score = 35%
 - c. Control and presentation of sheep or goat. Score = 25%
3. Sheep and Goat Costume class will be broken by age into the following classes (costume class will be combined for sheep and goats- one entry per exhibitor):
 - a. 8 & Under Division- for contestants not yet old enough for competition at State Fair of Virginia (less than 9 on September 30 of current year)
 - b. Junior Division- exhibitors 13 years of age and younger on September 30 of current year.
 - c. Senior Division- exhibitors 14 years of age and older on September 30 of current year.
