TERMS: All exhibitors must be members of the Texas Associations of Fairs & Events in good standing with dues paid for the year the Trade Show is held. Each booth rental includes one (1) full conference registration (entitles one person to attend all educational sessions, meals and receptions) and two (2) Trade Show passes (entitles two people access to the trade show only). Additional convention registration cost $190 (early bird before December 15)/$245 after December 15. Additional trade show only passes can be purchased at registration. All exhibitors must provide in advance of the show a certificate of general liability insurance with a minimum coverage level of $1 million and name the Texas Association of Fairs and Expositions, Inc. d/b/a Texas Association of Fairs and Events as an additional insured. Or, a general liability policy will be available for purchase through the association if so desired.

Exhibits must be arranged so as not to create any obstruction to the view of the other exhibits or create a hazard. Displays cannot extend beyond the bounds of next booth. The tacking, posting or placing of advertisement outside of the space contracted for will not be permitted elsewhere in the hotel, nor will soliciting be allowed outside the confines of an exhibitor's booth. No walk around acts will be permitted to perform outside of the space contracted for unless approved by the Trade Show Chairman.

Exhibitors who wish to build any structure in their booth must submit plans along with contract for approval by the Trade Show Committee and any local inspection codes. Exhibits must be of sound and attractive construction and must not deface or mar walls, ceiling or floor of exhibit area. No one will be allowed to operate combustible engines. It will be the responsibility of exhibitors to keep their booths neat and clean.

Organs, pianos and other musical instruments may be played at intervals at low tones; however, loud speaker sound systems are discouraged and may be operated only with the approval of the Trade Show Committee. Arrangements must be made with the Trade Show Committee if any entertainer is to be presented within a booth.
