TEXAS STATE FOREST FESTIVAL
FOOD VENDOR
GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

The Texas State Forest Festival has established rules for Food Vendors not to prohibit sales, but to allow for a safe and attractive environment for the fair going public's experience. The rules and regulations provided are intended to ensure a level playing field for all Food Vendors while providing a quality and safe product for the public. Your success is the Texas State Forest Festival's success, and to ensure such, everyone needs to understand these rules and regulations.

1. Interpretation and Violation of Rules: The Texas State Forest Festival Management reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to, and to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. Any Food Vendor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and be subject to such penalty as the Executive Committee may order. The Texas State Forest Festival Board of Directors Executive Committee shall have the further right to delegate any or all of the rights, authorities and responsibilities which it has under these Rules to such Festival Officials as it deems appropriate.

2. Application: The Application form is available for download at www.TexasStateForestFestival.com. The Application deadline is November 1, 2020. Applications must be submitted to Texas State Forest Festival, Attention – Jill Roberson 1615 S. Chestnut St. Lufkin, TX 75901. Food Vendors will not be considered without a complete and signed Application, deposit, copy of liability insurance policy and photos of your booth/trailer. Approved Applications received by May 29, 2020 will receive prime access to preferred booth/trailer space. Remaining spaces will be assigned for applications received after May 29, 2020. Note– spaces cannot be shared or subleased.

ALL FOOD VENDORS ARE REQUIRED TO CARRY A $1,000,000 LIABILITY INSURANCE POLICY – Vendors must turn in a copy of this policy to the Lufkin/Angelina County Chamber of Commerce, before you are allowed entry into the Texas State Forest Festival.

3. Background Checks: The Texas State Forest Festival reserves the right to conduct background checks on any Food Vendor. If the background check results do not comply with the Texas State Forest Festival policies and standards, then the Texas State Forest Festival Management has the right to revoke the contract and any payments made to the Texas State Forest Festival shall be forfeited.

4. Photo and Measurements of Booth/Trailer Requirement: Each Food Vendor must provide exact measurements and a photo of the booth/trailer they intend to bring to the event. Photo must be included in Application. If the booth/trailer at the event does not represent the submitted measurements and photo, then the Texas State Forest Festival has the right to collect additional fees and or remove the booth /trailer from the premises and revoke the contract and any payments made to the Texas State Forest Festival shall be forfeited.

5. Acceptable Items for Sale or Display: All items to be sold or displayed must be listed on the Application when submitted to the Texas State Forest Festival Office. The Texas State Forest Festival Vendor Committee will review the list and return a copy of the form to Food Vendors with a list of approved items for sale or display if the Application is accepted. Once a contract is issued, you may not display or sell any additional items without approval from the Food Vendor Coordinator. Please be specific on the Application. You may use an additional sheet to describe your items if there is not enough room on the Application. The Texas State Forest Festival Management will periodically monitor Food Vendor booths to ensure that only approved items are being sold or displayed. Failure to comply with this rule will result in immediate eviction from the grounds and forfeiture of all fees paid.

6. Offensive Items: The Texas State Forest Festival Management reserves the right to prohibit the sale, rental or display of any item that the Texas State Forest Festival Management reasonably deems objectionable from the standpoint of taste, quality or compatibility with the Texas State Forest Festival mission. Some items that will not be considered for sale, give away or rental include but are not limited to: alcohol, weapons of any kind, lasers, high powered water guns, rubber band guns, toy guns, products made from any endangered animals, unsafe, obscene or foul language, pornographic or drug related items.

7. Electrical Reservation: All Food Vendors need to clarify on the application the type of electricity needed. Please fill out the electrical amperage information for proper planning for your electrical needs. Each Vendor is responsible for supplying their own extension cord at least 50' in length and specialty plug if needed. No pig-ears or tie-ins will be allowed, and Vendors must be aware of their plug size for availability. The Food Vendor Coordinator will alert applicants by 9/4/2020 with any concerns of electrical requirements.

8. Approval of Application: If a Food Vendor's Application and deposit are accepted, the Texas State Forest Festival will send the Food Vendors a formal notice. Any remaining balance is due to the Texas State Forest Festival office no later than November 1, 2020. Applications accepted after October 20, 2020 must be paid in full when application is accepted. Failure to respond by appropriate deadlines will result in cancellation of space and forfeiture of any deposit.

9. Booth Staffing Requirements: It is the responsibility of the Food Vendor to ensure that their booth is staffed at all times during the festival hours of operation. Booths that do not comply will not be allowed back to future shows on the Festival grounds. It is also the Food Vendors responsibility to make sure that all employees have festival issued credentials, are familiar with the Rules and Regulations, knowledgeable about the products or services sold in the booth, appropriate in appearance, and courteous to all show visitors, exhibitors, staff and volunteers.

10. Refunds: There will be no refunds, for any reason after November 1, 2020.

11. Returned Checks: If you write a check that is returned for any reason, your check writing privileges will be lost and a fee of $50.00 will be charged. Any future payments to Texas State Forest Festival must be done by cash, money order, cashier's check or credit card.

12. Alcohol: NO Food Vendors will be allowed to sell alcoholic beverages at any time. Food Vendors are also not allowed to consume alcoholic beverages or be under the influence of alcohol while working on the Texas State Forest Festival property. Violators will be removed from the festival grounds and will not be allowed back on festival grounds during the remaining hours of operation.

13. Advertising: In order to retain consistency and "fairness at the fair" Food Vendors are not allowed to advertise or promote their products in any Festival locations other than the ones designated within the agreement and all business dealings are to be conducted within the space designated within the agreement. No shouting/loud or distracting music, voices or noises are allowed to attract visitors into your booth.

The Texas State Forest Festival and any other trademark or artwork used by the festival cannot be used on any products and/or marketing materials such as advertisements promotions, other forms or materials without written consent from the Texas State Forest Festival Marketing Department.

Use of Name or Official Logo: Food Vendor may not use the official event name, Texas State Forest Festival, or its logo without prior written consent from the Texas State Forest Festival Management. This includes the use of the names or logo for any marketing materials, media, or promotions.

14. Third Party Relationships: Food Vendors may not endorse, display, promote or sell any third party relationships. Any violation of this will result in immediate removal of the conflicting booth from the grounds and the Texas State Forest Festival will revoke the contract and any payments made to the Texas State Forest Festival shall be forfeited.
