GUIDELINES

1. No pre-packaged ingredients may be used. No canned/processed salsa allowed in the recipe.
2. Salsa must be made at home and brought to the New England Center. Create a unique and tasty salsa of your choice. Be creative and make it different.
3. All entries are showcased at room temperature. We do not have refrigeration available.
4. Contestants must purchase a pass into the Fair as well as parking. An exhibitor registration received by the due date (in chart above) and meeting all the rules of the contest may receive reimbursement for two (2) entry tickets and $10 for parking per household upon receipt of entered items. Exhibitor must be present for reimbursement.
5. You must be present to compete.
6. Recipe should be typed or neatly written to be included with the item. Submission must include the name of the recipe, a list of ingredients with standard U.S. measurements and complete, step-by-step cooking instructions. Please include your name, address, phone number and email on the back of your recipe. Your name should not be visible to the judges.

2020

7. Recipes should be named, original, unpublished, and the sole property of entrant.
8. All entries must be covered with a clear cover or clear plastic wrap.
9. Each contestant is required to enter their item with serving portion for 4 or more people.
10. Entries are to be brought in fully baked or cooked, completely prepared and ready for display.
11. Due to high temperatures and food safety during Fair, all perishables must be kept in an insulated container such as an ice chest. The Fair does not have the facility to store your entry.
12. All contestants must use inexpensive, disposable storage containers for all entries.
13. Entries must have been prepared/made/processed by the exhibitor in whose name they are entered.
14. . With entry submission, you accept all contest rules and agree to be bound by the judges' decisions. Judges decisions are FINAL.

Entries will be judged on Taste, Creativity, Texture, and Appearance.
