MGM SPRINGFIELD PRESENTS CARLY RAE JEPSEN
SEPT. 28 AT THE BIG E ARENA

MGM Springfield presents Carly Rae Jepsen in concert at The Big E Sept. 28. Tickets are priced at $39 and $29 and go on sale Thursday, August 15 at 10am at TheBigE.com and The Big E Box Office. Tickets include Big E admission when purchased before the show date. The show takes place at 7:30pm at The Big E Arena, sponsored by MGM Springfield.

“We are thrilled to bring Carly Rae Jepsen to The Big E this year,” said Talia Spera, Director of Entertainment at MGM Springfield. “It’s a pleasure to be partnering with The Big E in the effort to keep bringing world class entertainment to Western Massachusetts.”

The Canadian Pop singer, songwriter, has captivated audiences around the world since her debut album “Kiss” – the 2012 release which featured the Grammy Award-nominated, multi-platinum-selling breakout hit Call Me Maybe. Jepsen continued to bring new depth and dimension to her undeniably hooky but heart-driven breed of pop music with her 2015 album “E·MO·TION.” It became “a modern touchstone for a new crop of pop-leaning artists and legacy acts,” as NPR noted.

Jepsen’s new album, “Dedicated,” retains the joyful, hook-filled feeling of its predecessor and has a more ’70s-inspired feel at times (though the album defies categorization as a whole). The result is a 15-track compilation of love songs exuding a myriad of feelings related to different stages of relationships including Julien, No Drug Like Me, Now That I Found You, Want You In My Room, Too Much, and Party For One.
