

Position Title: Entertainment Photography Intern
Department: Special Events/ Marketing
Supervisor: Mellowship Entertainment
Position Type: Unpaid Internship

Priority Application Deadline: March 31, 2021

Timeframe: September – October 3, 2021

Position Summary

The Entertainment Photography Internship provides a student or recent graduate with the opportunity to experience the entertainment portion of The Big E through the lens of their camera. The student in this role will have the opportunity to engage with professionals in the entertainment industry, fair industry, as well as photographers experienced in this type of photography. Photography subjects include musical entertainment, parades, interactive guest experiences, and other stage entertainment.

Schedule will be based on the entertainment line-up and heavily focused on weekend entertainment offerings.

Interns receive a 17-day pass to the fair, two guest passes, and additional on-site benefits ranging from food vouchers, circus admission, and other perks (additional benefits vary).

Position Requirements

- Successful completion of at least two semesters (or equivalent) of college work
- Demonstrated experience with photography
- Ability to stand for prolonged periods of time
- Ability to climb stairs multiple times throughout shifts
- Demonstrated ability to be creative and work collaboratively
- Flexibility, enthusiasm, and a sense of humor

To Apply

Please fill out our online application form - <https://tinyurl.com/ESEInterns> - and include your resume, cover letter, and a sample of your work.
