MASON RAMSEY TO PLAY THE BIG E

Internet sensation Mason Ramsey will perform Sept. 28 on the Court of Honor Stage, sponsored by MattressFirm, at 8pm. The show is free with Big E admission and seating is on a first-come, first served basis. The stage is located in front of the iconic Coliseum.

Skyrocketing to fame with an oversized voice, a huge love of classic Country and enormous personality to match, 12-year-old Mason Ramsey is the biggest little star in Country music today. Ramsey was discovered in 2018 when a foot-tapping video of the youngster yodeling in a Walmart located in Harrisburg, Illinois, went viral.

Since then he's charmed on national television and dazzled the trendiest music festivals, become the youngest Country artist to sign with a major record label in a generation, stood tall on the Grand Ole Opry stage and released an acclaimed debut single – but his journey is only just beginning.

Now signed to Atlantic Records and Big Loud Records as the youngest major label Country artist since Billy Gillman, Ramsey's debut single, "Famous," is out now. A heartwarming, aspirational anthem which speaks to his quick rise to stardom – but also finds him promising to forever stay a big-hearted country boy – the track was written by hit making tunesmiths Tyler Hubbard (of Florida Georgia Line), Corey Crowder, Sarah Buxton and Canaan Smith, and was produced by studio aces Joey Moi (Florida Georgia Line, Jake Owen) and Crowder (Chris Young).
