

FIELD TRIP GUIDE

2018-2019

Field Trips at THE FRANK

FIELD TRIP ITINERARY:

Guided exhibition tour - 1

Art historical discussion + Q&A - 2

Discussion: How art relates to our world - 3

Hands on art-making workshop -4

The Frank art gallery is excited to offer educational field trips throughout the entire year! Through vibrant exhibitions and customizable workshops, we bring students of all ages a dynamic array of educational resources and field trip opportunities. From the photographic wonder of National Geographic's Into Africa exhibition to New Industry's contemporary artwork created with industrial materials, students and parents alike will enjoy the educational offerings of our cultural calendar.

All field trips include a guided exhibition tour, an art historical discussion of the significance of the artwork on display, and an analysis of how art relates to our greater concerns, our community and the world around us. Students will also experience a hands-on art making workshop!

Upcoming Field Trip Themes:

NOVEMBER 2018 - JANUARY 2019: Explore portraiture in Afterglow

FEBRUARY - APRIL 2019: Celebrate diversity and individuality with Prism

MAY - AUGUST 2019: Venture Into Africa with National Geographic

AUGUST - OCTOBER 2019: Innovative materials astound in New Industry

NOVEMBER 2019 - JANUARY 2020: Play with extreme volumes in Inflated

FEE: Field trips start at only $5 per student!
