RE: 2018 Tulsa State Fair Agriculture Internship Opportunities

The Tulsa State Fair Agriculture Department is offering internship opportunities to students with Agriculture Majors. The internship will allow students to work in close association with all aspects of the Agriculture Department. Interns will gain overall knowledge of procedures involved in hosting livestock shows including, but not limited to, daily operations and schedules, data entry, social media, photography, contest coordination, and customer service.

The following internship positions are available:

-  Agricultural Education Internship
 -  Trough Talk Program Oversight
 -  AGLAHOMA Exhibit Oversight
 -  Promotion of Agriculture to the Public

-  Communications Internship
 -  Social Media Oversight
 -  Photography and Video
 -  Exhibitor Interviews

-  Operations Internship
 -  Daily Operations Oversight
 -  Contest Coordination
 -  Show Ring Coordination

-  Show Office Internship
 -  Exhibitor Customer Relations
 -  Data Entry
 -  Kiosk Check In

The Tulsa State Fair will provide lodging and meals throughout the duration of the show, September 27 – October 7, 2018. Interns will be paid a stipend of $50.00 per day. We will work with student's class schedule and can be flexible on the start date.

To apply, please send application and additional requirements to: bherndon@tulsastatefair.com by August 20, 2018.
