

Livestock Exhibitor Barn Etiquette Policy

Tulsa State Fair Open Show and Junior Show Exhibitors:

Listed below are the expectations of exhibitors and animals in the barns during the duration of the Tulsa State Fair. Please remember, the barns are a window to the public, educating and promoting the importance of the agriculture industry. It is important all barn rules below are followed.

- Animals clean, well groomed, and properly spaced.
- Adequate bedding for animals.
- Aisles clean & neat with adequate width for visitors.
- Feed, tack, and equipment clean and stored neatly.
- Personnel items (backpacks, food, clothing, bedding, camping items,) neatly stored.
- Camping will only be allowed in the stall areas from 10 pm – 7 am
- Manure properly disposed of in the manure carts outside of the barns. DO NOT put manure in trash cans. Yellow trash cans are for trash only.
- Trash properly disposed of in the yellow trash cans.
- Attitude of exhibitors must be knowledgeable, courteous and friendly.
- Exhibit courtesy to fellow breeders.
- Barn should look welcoming and appealing to the public at ALL times.
